The Perfect Childhood:

The Perfect Childhood Larry Clark,1995      What is a Good Childhood? Johannes Drerup,Gottfried Schweiger,2024-11-15
This book deals with the question of what is a good life for children It argues that a good childhood is one in which a child is sufficiently provided with all the goods it needs to develop into an autonomous person a child is sufficiently provided with the goods it needs for its well being sufficient space is given to a child s will wishes concerns and projects The book not only develops a new theoretical conception of a good childhood and defends it against objections it also engages with the problem how a good childhood can be realized in the context of families as well as the institutions of liberal states In so doing it provides numerous insights into central themes and key issues of the philosophy of childhood What is a Good Childhood is essential reading for all scholars and researchers of ethics social and political philosophy and philosophy education especially those focusing on the philosophy of childhood      A Good Childhood Judy Dunn,Richard Layard,2009-02-05 Every day the newspapers lament the problems facing our children broken homes pressures to eat and drink the stress of exams The same issues are discussed in every pub and at every dinner party But is life really more difficult for children than it was and if so why And how can we make it better This book which is a result of a two year investigation by the Children s Society and draws upon the work of the UK s leading experts in many fields explores the main stresses and influences to which every child is exposed family friends youth culture values and schooling and will make recommendations as to how we can improve the upbringing of our children It tackles issues which affect every child whatever their background and questions and provides solutions to the belief that life has become so extraordinarily difficult for children in general The experts make 30 specific recommendations written not from the point of view of academics but for the general reader above all for parents and teachers We expect publication to be a major event and the centre of widespread media attention      The Golden Cage Hilde Bruch,2001-05-02 Featuring a new Foreword this classic book on anorexia nervosa was published more than 20 years ago Writing in direct jargon free style and often quoting her patients descriptions of their own observations of the illness Bruch describes the relentless pursuit of thinness and emphasizes the importance of early diagnosis      Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen's Magazine ,1926      Motherhood, Childhood, and Parenting in an Age of Education Maryellen Schaub,2023-05-05 Motherhood as a celebrated yet underappreciated role is often thought of as a natural process something instinctive that we refine by watching our own mothers and others in our community We rarely think of motherhood as something that is time and culturally specific yet like culture itself it is socially constructed and both motherhood and childhood evolve over time With the rise in educational attainment of mothers in the American population the expectations associated with childhood increasingly include not just education but cognitive development and extracurricular activities as the partnership between parents and education intensifies in the joint project of human development of children Motherhood Childhood and Parenting in an Age of Education offers a new way to conceptualize the high demands of contemporary parenthood It traces the emerging narrative about the good mother changes in the underlying assumptions of what constitutes the good mother and the implications for the good childhood as education grows in institutional strength This book demonstrates that education is driving the formation of the parent and child roles in the dominant contemporary culture of the US although alternate models exist Education itself has expanded over time to become our largest social intervention defining behaviors and beliefs such as parental involvement in schooling the unengaged parent and the deficient student Transactions of the Childhood Society ,1908 Home, School, and Community ,1924 Journal of motives in education and public welfare Baking Technology ,1924 Children's Rights Kate Douglas Wiggin,1894 Idolising Children Daniel Donahoo,2007 Obsessed with our own youth and wanting perfect genius children who live in a world of designer clothes and toys it s time for us to find new ways of parenting and a new kind of childhood With humour insight and emotion Daniel Donahoo reflects on the place of children in our society by looking at everything from fertility rates childcare the role of the media and the day to day joys and challenges of being a parent Donahoo argues that idolising is a form of worship that adversely affects our children s development in their early years and creates citizens who no longer understand their roles and responsibilities It makes parents feel unnecessarily guilty and anxious Without blame or finger pointing Idolising Children examines how we arrived here and looks at what needs to change so that communities as a whole are responsible for raising children Book jacket The Teachers' Commentary on the Gospel According to St. Matthew Francis Nathan Peloubet,1901 The Song of Songs Alexander Moody Stuart,1877 Forecast ,1925 Forth ,1928 The Christian Evangelist ,1903 National Catholic Welfare Council Bulletin ,1925 The Life of Jesus Christ Walter Elliott,1902 The World of the Unseen Arthur Willink,1893 Ishmael Mary Elizabeth Braddon,1884
