Twelve New Testament Studies:

Twelve New Testament Studies John A. T. Robinson, 2009-10-01 Explore biblical theology with monographs from a diversity of experts The Studies in Biblical Theology series includes a wealth of resources to help you understand the development of various doctrines concepts and terminology across the Old and New Testaments Investigate the characteristics of worship in the early church with studies on its liturgy and sacraments Fine tune your understanding of Jesus ministry by exploring his wilderness experience and the nature of his mission Delve into detailed word studies investigate Christological titles used by Paul and come to a new appreciation of the Ten Commandments These in depth treatments will give you a better grip on key theological themes found throughout the Bible Twelve New Testament Studies John Arthur Thomas Robinson, 1962 Twelve New Testament Studies John A. T. Robinson (évêque de Woolwich.), 1962 Twelve More New Testament Studies John Arthur Thomas Robinson, 1984 Twelve More New Testament Studies by John A T Robinson 1984 Birth of the New Testament C. F. D. Moule, 2000-04-01 C F D Moule shows how the earliest Christian writing developed as a response to the daily demands of Christian life in societies indifferent or even hostile to Christianity and how the selection of certain writings to constitute the basis of Christian belief was a response to specific needs The Gospel of Matthew and the Sayings Source Q Frans Neirynck, Joseph Verheyden, R. Corstjens, 1998 The present Bibliography covers the research on the Gospel of Matthew and on the Gospel Source Q from 1950 to 1995 The new volume has adopted the model of the previously published The Gospel of Mark A Cumulative Bibliography 1950 1990 It contains about 15 000 entries and is arranged alphabetically by name of author the author s works are given in chronological order Each entry includes the complete bibliographical references information about reprints new editions and translations and summary indications of the content Gospel passage subject The companion volume furnishes detailed Indexes of Gospel Passages and Subject matters related to Mt and to Q All indexes are prepared by J Verheyden The Bibliography completes the series of Leuven repertories on the Gospels published in BETL 82 John 1988 88 Luke 1989 and 102 Mark 1992 The Twelve Disciples Douglas Connelly, 2014-03-07 Jesus had about three years to mold a dozen fearful faithless men into the pillars of a worldwide movement Despite this brief window time in Jesus presence had a transforming effect on each of them and they would be changed by Jesus power In this ten session LifeGuide Bible Study of Jesus first followers will transform you too John the Baptizer and Prophet Robert L. Webb, 1991-08-01 Using recent methodological advances in historical Jesus research this book examines the figure of John by focusing on the two characteristic roles which he publicly performed baptizer and prophet The significance of these roles is studied within the context of late Second Temple Judaism in order to understand John within his social and historical context Part I examines the traditions concerning John in Josephus s Antiquities as well as in canonical and extra canonical Gospels Part II studies John s role as baptizer by analysing the functions of ablutions in the Old Testament and Second Temple Jewish literature especially the Qumran literature Part III analyses John's public role of prophet John is seen as the leader of a prophetic movement whose sociopolitical orientation may be compared with similar movements of the period

Criteria for Authenticity in Historical-Jesus Research Stanley E. Porter, 2004-12-10 Historical Jesus research continues to captivate the interests of scholars Recently there has been renewed discussion of the criteria for authenticity This study traces the history of this type of research especially in terms of authenticity criteria

The Priority of John John A. T. Robinson, 2011-03-01 It has been the fate of many books on John to be left unfinished for its interpretation naturally forms the crowning of a lifetime I have myself been intending to write a book on the Fourth Gospel since the fifties before I broke off reluctantly to be Bishop of Woolwich though I am grateful now that I did not produce it prematurely at that time It means however that I shall be compelled to refer to and often recapitulate material directly or indirectly related to the Johannine literature which I have written over the years some of it indeed while I was bishop Many scholars in fact if not most now think that the author of the Gospel himself never lived to finish it and have seen the work as the product of numerous hands and redactors As will become clear I prefer to believe that the ancient testimony of the church is correct that John wrote it while still in the body and that its roughnesses self corrections and failures of connection real or imagined are the result of its not having been smoothly or finally edited If so I am in good company At any rate who could wish for a better last testimony from his friends than that his witness is true John 21:24 In other words he got it right historically and theologically from the Introduction At the time of his death in December 1983 John Robinson had completed the text of the book on which his 1984 Bampton lectures were to be based so that it is possible to see the full details of his extremely controversial argument that the Gospel of John was the first Gospel to be written Dr Robinson himself once described the dawning of his conviction that this was the case as a Damascus Road experience and his presentation of the evidence is made with all the customary vigor with which he would argue for something in which he deeply believed The objections which need to be overcome to stand on its head what has long been one of the fundamental assumptions of New Testament scholarship are substantial but here once again Dr Robinson shows that so much of what is taken as established fact in that area is no more than preference and presumption Certainly he will provoke rethinking on a whole series of topics from the chronology of Jesus ministry to the nature of his teaching As The Listener said of the equally controversial Redating the New Testament The greatest pleasure Dr Robinson gives is purely intellectual His book is a prodigious virtuoso exercise in inductive reasoning and an object lesson in the nature of historical argument and historical knowledge This sequel equals if not excels its predecessor in those respects and is a fitting tribute to a brilliant New Testament scholar The manuscript was prepared for publication by Dr Chip Coakley Dr Robinson's pupil now Lecturer in Religious Studies in the University of Lancaster

challenges recent claims that Gnosticism especially as expressed in the Nag Hammadi tractate Trimorphic Protennoia is the most natural and illuminating background for understanding the Prologue of the Fourth Gospel Scriptural allusions and interpretive traditions suggest that Jewish wisdom tradition mediated by the synagogue of the diaspora lies behind the Prologue and the Fourth Gospel as a whole not some form of late first century Gnosticism Several features of the Fourth Gospel reflect the synagogue and nascent Christianity's struggle to advance and defend its beliefs about Jesus who as God's son and Agent was understood as the embodiment of the Divine Word All of the ingredients that make up Johannine christology derive from dominical tradition refracted through the lens of Jewish interpretive traditions There is no compelling evidence that this christology derived from or was influenced by gnostic mythology Word and Glory also develops and tests criteria for assessing the relative value of post New Testament sources for the interpretation of New Testament documents

New Testament Christology G. E. Gorman, 1988-12-08 The New Testament doctrine of the dual nature of Jesus Christ his historical existence as a man and his simultaneous reality as a god has stimulated a resurgence of christological studies by twentieth century scholars and theologians This bibliography is the first work to provide a thorough critical examination of this important body of modern scholarship Containing more than 1 900 annotated entries it will be an essential reference guide for anyone with an interest in early Christianity Christian doctrine or biblical studies In his introduction Hultgren summarizes trends in New Testament christology as reflected in twentieth century European British and American works Sensitively arranged in subject categories the bibliography begins with nine chapters relating to the foundations of christological studies The remaining forty one chapters are divided into three sections dealing with specific topics the titles given to Christ the treatment of Christ by New Testament writers and primary christological themes Many of the entries include extensive commentary as well as passages quoted from the sources Authors titles and subjects are listed in comprehensive indexes Reflecting both the depth and breadth of Dr Hultgren's scholarly analysis this new bibliography is an appropriate choice for New Testament scholars as well as library reference collections The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1905 The Institute Tie, 1904 Association Men, 1915 Modern Theologians Thomas E.
