Contemporary Urban Landscapes of the Middle East Mohammad Gharipour, 2016-03-17 The Middle East is well known for its historic gardens that have developed over more than two millenniums The role of urban landscape projects in Middle Eastern cities has grown in prominence with a gradual shift in emphasis from gardens for the private sphere to an increasingly public function The contemporary landscape projects either designed as public plazas or public parks have played a significant role in transferring the modern Middle Eastern cities to a new era and also in transforming to a newly shaped social culture in which the public has a voice This book considers what ties these projects to their historical context and what regional and local elements and concepts have been used in their design

Urban Landscapes in High-Density Cities Bianca Maria Rinaldi, Puay Yok Tan, 2019-06-04 The positive effects of urban green spaces are well known ranging from the promotion of health support of biodiversity to climate regulation However the practical implementation of urban landscapes is less discussed How can we make these spaces functional economically feasible and inclusive especially as cities become more diverse The publication explores strategies to reconcile the various demands such as food production resilience and nature conservation Indeed urban landscapes have to be restorative ecological and aesthetically pleasing at the same time This is a particular challenge in high density cities like Singapore Seoul or New York where space is a scarce commodity The continuing growth of the worldwide urban population imbues the topic with a special urgency

Large-Scale Urban Parks on Post-Industrial Sites in Contemporary Urban Landscape Conceptions Mengyixin Li, 2023-08-09 The theme of this book is related to Large Parks on Post industrial Sites in Contemporary Urban Landscape Conceptions which is expounded in the fields of landscape architecture landscape ecology and urban planning A worldwide perspective is created so as to conduct cross cultural research on the theories and practices of large scale urban parks in North America Germany and China Through the scientific approach of critical rationalism three design paradigms of large parks in different conceptions of contemporary urban landscapes are formulated based on quantitative and qualitative analysis which are classified as the organic parks of North American landscape urbanism the structural parks of German landscape structuralism and the large parks of Chinese urban inventory renewal By means of critical thinking in diverse cultural interpretations the research aims to reveal remarkable similarities and differences between the cultures in the Western world according to their understanding of landscapes coherent vs creative landscape and ecology representation vs metaphor and landscape and life diversity vs unpredictability Through theoretical analysis and case studies it demonstrates that the international park paradigms characterised by complexity diversity sustainability appropriation and identity can influence various socio cultural ecological and aesthetic developments Finally the analytical results of the two park paradigms in Western countries are adopted in the examination of landscape architectural park models and urbanistic theoretical frameworks in China This monograph is written primarily for scholars professionals and students in the fields of landscape architecture urban planning and architecture The book involving in depth analysis about urban parks green open spaces green infrastructure and post industrial landscapes will have international appeal It will appeal to readers at different levels Above all it may be of interest to professionals who are concerned with the topics of urban parks and post industrial landscapes as well as Chinese scholars and experts particularly those looking at China s urban renewal and the ongoing transformation of post industrial sites at different scales This book will have strong implications for relevant urban landscape practices in China Furthermore it will be supported by the author s colleagues from various countries such as Germany Italy the USA Canada Brazil and China Moreover students to whom the author teaches courses of Landscape Architecture History and Theory and Landscape Planning and Design at BUCEA as well as international students taking Collaborative Classes organised by BUCEA TUM and POLIMI Politecnico di Milano Italy are encouraged to read this book

Urban Landscape Perspectives Giovanni Maciocco,2008-02-01 Urban Landscape Perspectives explores how landscape terminology can be usefully brought into the urban debate The articles are by scholars who have a particular interest in and experience of the city project at various operative scales They include theoretical reflections on the landscape as an eminently project like figure The book describes new methods and approaches dealing with the contemporary environment whether it is from the point of view of the city or the landscape

The Restless Urban Landscape Paul L. Knox,1993 This advanced reference deals with the radical changes that have occurred within cities since the mid 1970s as a result of the interplay of new economic social political and cultural forces associated with the transition to advanced capitalism It brings the cutting edge of debate in urban geography to a single volume expresses important new ideas and theories in an accessible format addresses recent urban change offers a dynamic approach to urban geography and brings a cross disciplinary approach to urban change providing a big picture context for ideas and theory Suitable for professional geographers and environment and planning specialists

The Power of Place Dolores Hayden,1997-02-24 Based on her extensive experience in the urban communities of Los Angeles historian and architect Dolores Hayden proposes new perspectives on gender race and ethnicity to broaden the practice of public history and public art enlarge urban preservation and reorient the writing of urban history to spatial struggles In the first part of The Power of Place Hayden outlines the elements of a social history of urban space to connect people's lives and livelihoods to the urban landscape as it changes over time She then explores how communities and professionals can tap the power of historic urban landscapes to nurture public memory The second part documents a decade of research and practice by The Power of Place a nonprofit organization Hayden founded in downtown Los Angeles Through public meetings walking tours artists's books and permanent public sculpture as well as architectural preservation teams of historians designers planners and artists worked together to understand preserve and commemorate urban landscape history as African American Latina and Asian American families have experienced it One project celebrates the urban homestead of Bidly Mason an African American ex slave and midwife active between 1856 and 1891 Another reinterprets the Embassy Theater where Rose Pesotta Luisa Moreno and Josefina Fierro de Bright organized Latina dressmakers and cannery workers in the 1930s and 1940s A third chapter tells the story of a historic district where Japanese American family businesses flourished from the 1890s to the 1940s Each project deals with bitter memories slavery repatriation internment but shows how citizens survived and persevered to build an urban life for themselves their families and their communities Drawing on many similar efforts around the United States from New York to Charleston Seattle to Cincinnati Hayden finds a broad new movement across urban preservation public history and public art to accept American diversity at the heart of the vernacular urban landscape She provides dozens of models for creative urban history projects in cities and towns across the country

Urban Landscapes Arne Saelen, 2012 This monograph is much more than a compendium of architectural projects it is the exposition of the new concept of urban space one which combines rural and urban characteristics

Selectie van papers gepresenteerd op het congres Building identities gender perspectives on children and urban space gehouden van 11-13 april 1995 Geselecteerd is op de relevantie m b t kindvriendelijke vormgeving van de moderne stedelijke vormgeving in landen die enigszins het karakter van een welvaartsstaat hebben Het boek bestaat uit vier delen manier waarop kinderen worden beperkt door hun woonomgeving analyse van het gedrag van kinderen waarbij hun voorkeuren centraal staan planning van de woonomgeving verschillen tussen autochtone en allochtone kinderen In elke bijdrage komen de verschillen tussen meisjes en jongens aan de orde Bevat een samenvatting in het Nederlands BosBus Ton Matton, Vincent Kuypers, 2004 Bosbus are public buses that have plants including trees growing in them Land and Leisure in an Urban Landscape A. W. Bacon, 1980 Urban Landscape Irrigation with Recycled Wastewater Yaling Qian, 2006 From 2003 2005 research was conducted to assess variability of chemical properties of recycled wastewater in the Front Range of Colorado and to evaluate landscape soils and plants that were then under recycled wastewater irrigation Survey data indicated that rather than cost savings the availability and reliability of the water were the main reason for using RWW for irrigation That use in urban landscapes is a powerful means of water conservation and nutrient recycling thereby reducing the demands of freshwater and mitigating pollution of surface and ground water However potential problems exist especially salts in the treated wastewater the significantly higher soil SAR sodium adsorption ratios caused concern about possible long term reductions in hydraulic conductivity and infiltration rate in high clay soils Urban Landscapes Josep Maria Minguet, Santi Trivino, Monsa, 2013 The ever growing demand for incorporating natural elements into manmade environments in a sustainable manner has led to increasing recognition of landscape architects by the rest of the profession Urban Landscapes with its full colour photography and detailed architectural plans brings together some of the most innovative and exciting projects from both established and up and coming landscape architects

Urban Landscapes: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Urban Landscapes : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Urban Landscapes : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
