Urban Structure Halifax An Urban Design Approach:

Urban Structure, Halifax Beverly Ann Sandalack, Andrei Nicolai, 1998 ISUF, Urban Morphology and Human Settlements Vítor Oliveira, 2024-07-03 This book offers insight into the most important scientific society on urban morphology worldwide the International Seminar on Urban Form ISUF After addressing the three decade history of ISUF the book analyses the present and future of this scientific society of urban morphology and of human settlements This timely and fundamental reflection gathers contributions from present and past leadership of ISUF since its inception in 1994 Over the last three decades the urban world has undergone major changes the urban population is now higher than the rural population more than half of the world s population lives on a single continent Asia home to almost three billion people in China and India alone so geographical imbalance is considerable and while half of the urban population still lives in small cities of fewer than 300 000 inhabitants the number of megacities has increased significantly How does the physical form of cities in different parts of the world respond to these dynamics Can cities preserve fundamental elements of humankind s urban heritage while accommodating changes driven by the main socioeconomic and environmental needs of today The field of urban morphology has been continuously adjusting to the essential dynamics of its object of study While developing and strengthening its most robust theories concepts and methods designed after the mid twentieth century urban morphology has been able to integrate innovative approaches for describing and explaining the emerging dynamics and patterns of urban form often incorporating groundbreaking technologies for data collection analysis modelling and simulation But what is the role of urban morphology in science and society today How effective is it in communicating a rigorous understanding of the urban landscape both to academics and researchers in other fields and to citizens in general How successful is it in providing practitioners with relevant and useful knowledge that informs their action on cities form and structure through spatial planning urban design and architecture This book addresses these fundamental questions offering academics researchers and practitioners comprehensive knowledge on human settlements the field of urban morphology and the role of ISUF in promoting groundbreaking morphological thought Linking Industry and Ecology Ann Dale, James Tansey, 2007-11-01 The contributors to this volume draw on their experience in a variety of disciplines to explore the origins promise and relevance of the emerging field of industrial ecology They situate industrial ecology within the broader range of environmental management strategies and concepts from the practices of pollution prevention through life cycle management to the more fundamental shift toward dematerialization and ecological design Their work not only affirms what has been learned to date in this nascent field but also provides new insight by demonstrating that technologies are socially and politically embedded This book makes a compelling argument for the need to think ecologically to develop innovative and competitive industrial policy The Rural-urban Fringe in Canada Kenneth B. Beesley, 2010 Architecture Live Projects Harriet Harriss, Lynnette Widder, 2014-05-23 Architecture Live Projects provides a persuasive evidence based advocacy for moving a particular kind of architectural learning known as Live Projects towards a holistic integration into current and future architectural curricula Live Projects are work completed in the borderlands between architectural education and built environment practice they include design build work community based design urban advocacy consulting and a host of other forms and models described by the book s international group of authors Because of their position Live Projects as vehicle for simultaneously providing teaching and service has the potential to recalibrate the contesting claims that both academia and profession make to architecture This collection of essays and case studies consolidates current discussions on theory and learning ambitions academic best practices negotiation with licensure and accreditation and considerations of architectural integrity It is an invaluable resource to current and future Live Projects advocates whether they aim to move from pedagogy into practice or practice into pedagogy The Centennial Cure Meaghan Elizabeth Beaton,2017-01-01 This book examines the intersection of state policy cultural development and commemoration during Canada s 1967 centennial celebrations It explores four initiatives that were undertaken in Nova Scotia to mark this anniversary and demonstrates one province s response to Lamontagne s appeal to stem Canada s cultural poverty These initiatives also reflected those larger social cultural economic and political transformations that took place in postwar Nova Scotia Further they help us understand the province s experience within the broader context of the development of modern Canadian cultural and social history Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Canadian Journal of Urban Research ,2002 ISUF 1999 International Seminar on Urban Form (Organization),1999 The Calgary Project Beverly Ann Sandalack,Andrei Nicolai,2006 Focuses on the culmination of five years of research and observation in the study of this prairie metropolis This title looks at the city of Calgary not only because of its phenomenal growth but also to consider the premise that the evolution of any city reflects the ideology and cultural values of its inhabitants Barry Johns Architects Barry Johns,Brian Carter,Essy Baniassad,2000 Barry Johns is an Edmonton architect whose designs are drawn from a search for harmony with the land culture and institutions of the prairie region Ten projects with essays illustrated project index and bibliography Architecture Canada ,2000 Canadian Book Review Annual ,1999 Brian MacKay-Lyons Brian MacKay-Lyons,Brian Carter,2000 Including an abundance of black and white drawings and photographs this book looks at the regionalist approach of architect Lyons as exemplified by 16 selected projects from 1986 to 1997 Ranging from rural cottages and homes to urban houses and institutional buildings each project entry includes Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian,Marian Butler,2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Issues in Canadian Urban Design Catherine Charette,University of Winnipeg.
