Reading Apollinaire's Calligrammes Willard Bohn, 2018-01-25 Reading Apollinaire's Calligrammes examines Guillaume Apollinaire's second major collection of poetry. Composed between 1913 and 1918, the nineteen poems examined here fall into two main groups: the experimental poetry and the war poetry. They also provide glimpses of the poet's personal history from his affair with Louise de Coligny Châtillon to his engagement to Madeleine Pagès and his marriage with Jacqueline Kolb. Each section examines all of the previous scholarship for the work in question, provides a detailed analysis, and in many cases offers a new interpretation. Each poem is subjected to a meticulous line-by-line analysis in the light of current knowledge.

Une fenêtre ouverte sur la création Cynthia B. Kerr, John C. Lapp, 1983 One Poem in Search of a Translator Eugenia Loffredo, Manuela Perteghella, 2009 Translation is a journey, a journey undertaken by the text hopping around the world and mischievously border crossing from one language to another, from one culture to another. For a translator, this journey can become a truly creative engagement with the otherness of the source text, an experience of self-discovery leading to understanding and enrichment and ultimately towards a new text. This singular literary experiment intends to magnify the idiosyncrasy of this translational journey. In the process, translation reveals itself as an increasingly creative activity rather than simply a linguistic transfer. This volume consists of twelve translations of one poem, Les Fenêtres by the French poet Apollinaire. The translators embarking on this project all from different backgrounds and working contexts: poets, professional translators, academics, visual artists were asked to engage with the inherent multimodality of this poem inspired by Robert Delaunay's Les Fenêtres series of paintings. The result is a kaleidoscopic diversity of approaches and final products. Each translation is accompanied by self-reflective commentary which provides insight into the complex process and experience of translation, enticing the reader to join this journey too. Products Shipped by Canadian Manufacturers Statistics Canada, 1992 The French principia. 3 pt. This novel approach will also appeal to film scholars and film practitioners with an interest in spatial and architectural issues, as well as researchers from cultural studies in the field of everyday life. The everyday life is one of the hardest things to uncover since by its very nature it remains overlooked and ignored. However, cinema has over the last 120 years represented, interpreted, and portrayed hundreds of thousands of everyday life situations taking place in a wide range of dwellings, streets, and cities. Film constitutes the most comprehensive
