World Cinema Shekhar Deshpande, Meta Mazaj, 2018-01-17 World Cinema A Critical Introduction is a comprehensive yet accessible guide to film industries across the globe From the 1980s onwards new technologies and increased globalization have radically altered the landscape in which films are distributed and exhibited Films are made from the large scale industries of India Hollywood and Asia to the small productions in Bhutan and Morocco They are seen in multiplexes palatial art cinemas in Cannes traveling theatres in rural India and on millions of hand held mobile screens Authors Deshpande and Mazaj have developed a method of charting this new world cinema that makes room for divergent perspectives traditions and positions while also revealing their interconnectedness and relationships of meaning In doing so they bring together a broad range of issues and examples theoretical concepts viewing and production practices film festivals large industries such as Nollywood and Bollywood and smaller and emerging film cultures into a systemic yet flexible map of world cinema The multi layered approach of this book aims to do justice to the depth dynamism and complexity of the phenomenon of world cinema For students looking to films outside of their immediate context this book offers a blueprint that will enable them to transform a casual encounter with a film into a systematic inquiry into world cinema

Contemporary Lusophone African Film Paulo de Medeiros, Livia Apa, 2020-12-13 Offering a range of critical perspectives on a vibrant body of films this collection of essays engages with questions specific to the various cinemas and films addressed while putting forward an argument for their inclusion in current debates on world cinema The collection brings together 11 chapters by recognized scholars who analyze a variety of films and videos from Angola Cape Verde Guin Bissau and Mozambique It also includes an interview with Pedro Pimenta one of the most distinguished African film festival organizers Drawing on various theoretical perspectives the volume strives to reverse the relative invisibility that has afflicted these cinemas arguing that most if not all Lusophone films are transnational in all aspects of production acting and reception The initial three chapters sketch broad comparative overviews and suggest theoretical approaches while the ensuing chapters focus on specific case studies and discuss a number of key issues such as the convergence of film with politics the question of gender and violence as well as the revisiting of the period immediately following independence Attention is given to fiction documentary films and recent short alternative video productions that are overlooked by more traditional channels The book stresses the need to pay attention to the significance of African film and Lusophone African film in particular within the developing field of world cinema Bringing together general overviews historical considerations detailed case studies and focused theoretical reflections this book is a significant volume for students and researchers in film studies especially African Lusophone cultural studies and world cinema

A Dictionary of Film Studies Annette Kuhn, Guy Westwell, 2012-06-21 This volume covers all aspects of film studies including critical terms concepts movements national and international cinemas film history genres organizations practices and key technical terms and concepts It is an ideal reference for students and teachers of film studies and anyone with an interest in film studies and criticism

Film World, 1976 Remapping World Cinema Stephanie Dennison, Song Hwee Lim, 2006 Covering a broad scope this collection examines the cinemas of Europe East Asia India Africa and Latin America and will be of interest to scholars and students of film studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies as well as to film enthusiasts keen to explore a wider range of world cinema Jacket

An Introduction to World Cinema, 2d ed. Aristides Gazetas, 2016-04-28 Motion pictures are more than just entertainment In film studies courses in colleges and universities worldwide students and professors explore the social political technological and historical implications of cinema This textbook provides two things the history of film as an art form and an analysis of its impact on society and politics Chapters are arranged chronologically covering the major developments in film like the advent of talkies or the French New Wave Each era is examined in the context of several exemplary films commonly viewed in film studies courses Thus students can watch Birth of a Nation and Intolerance while studying the innovations made by D W Griffith from 1910 to 1919 The scope is global embracing the cinematic traditions of Asia Latin America and Africa as well as the ever important American and European output Thoughtful articles from film scholars are included The flexible structure of the text allows a variety of options for classroom use or personal study Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

conversation on music and film history The Routledge Companion to Global Film Music in the Early Sound Era draws together a wide ranging collection of scholarship on music in global cinema during the transition from silent to sound films the late 1920s to the 1940s Moving beyond the traditional focus on Hollywood this Companion considers the vast range of cinema and music created in often overlooked regions throughout the rest of the world providing crucial global context to film music history An extensive editorial Introduction and 50 chapters from an array of international experts connect the music and sound of these films to regional and transnational issues culturally historically and aesthetically across five parts Western Europe and Scandinavia Central and Eastern Europe North Africa The Middle East Asia and Australasia Latin America Soviet Russia Filling a major gap in the literature The Routledge Companion to Global Film Music in the Early Sound Era offers an essential reference for scholars of music film studies and cultural history Cinema, 1929 The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas Carlos Rojas, Eileen Chow, 2013-03-13 What does it mean for a cinematic work to be Chinese Does it refer specifically to a work's subject or does it also reflect considerations of language ethnicity nationality ideology or political orientation Such questions make any single approach to a vast field like Chinese cinema difficult at best Accordingly The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas situates the term more broadly among various different phases genres and distinct national configurations while taking care to address the consequences of grouping together so many disparate histories under a single banner Offering both a platform for cross disciplinary dialogue and a mapping of Chinese cinema as an expanded field this Handbook presents thirty three essays by leading researchers and scholars intent on yielding new insights and new analyses using three different methodologies Chapters in Part I investigate the historical periodizations of the field through changing notions of national and political identity all the way from the industry's beginnings in the 1920s up to its current forms in contemporary Hong Kong Taiwan and the global diaspora Chapters in Part II feature studies centered on the field's taxonomical formalities including such topics as the role of the Chinese opera in technological innovation the political logic of the Maoist film and the psychoanalytic formula of the kung fu action film Finally in Part III focus is given to the structural elements that comprise a work's production distribution and reception to reveal the broader cinematic apparatuses within which these works are positioned Taken together the multipronged approach supports a wider platform beyond the geopolitical and linguistic limitations in existing scholarship Expertly edited to illustrate a representative set of up to date topics and approaches The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas provides a vital addition to a burgeoning field still in its formative stages World Cinema through Global Genres William V. Costanzo, 2013-12-02 World Cinema through Global Genres introduces the complex forces of global filmmaking using the popular concept of film genre The cluster based organization allows students to acquire a clear understanding of core issues that apply to all films around the world Innovative pedagogical approach that uses genres to teach the more unfamiliar subject of world cinema A cluster based organization provides a solid framework for students to acquire a sharper understanding of core issues that apply to all films around the world A deep focus section in each chapter gives students information and insights about important regions of filmmaking India China Japan and Latin America that tend to be underrepresented in world cinema classes Case studies allow students to focus on important and accessible individual films that exemplify significant traditions and trends A strong foundation chapter reviews key concepts and vocabulary for understanding film as an art form a technology a business an index of culture a social barometer and a political force The engaging style and organization of the book make it a compelling text for both world cinema and film genre courses

World Cinema and the Ethics of Realism Lúcia Nagib,2011-01-20 A sweeping study of world cinema illustrating how its creative peaks stem from the urge to reveal otherwise hidden political and social dimensions of reality

Experimental Cinema ,1930

The Routledge Companion to World Cinema Paul Cooke,2017 The Routledge Companion to World Cinema explores and examines a global range of films and filmmakers their movements and audiences comparing their cultural technological and political dynamics identifying the impulses that constantly reshape the form and function of the cinemas of the world Each of the forty chapters provides a survey of a topic explaining why the issue or area is important and critically discussing the leading views in the area Designed as a dynamic forum for 43 world leading scholars this companion contains significant expertise and insight and is dedicated to challenging complacent views of hegemonic film cultures and replacing outmoded ideas about production distribution and reception It offers both a survey and an investigation into the condition and activity of contemporary filmmaking worldwide often challenging long standing categories and weighted often politically motivated value judgements thereby grounding and aligning the reader in an activity of remapping which is designed to prompt rethinking
