World In Flames:

A World in Flames Martha Byrd Hoyle, 1971 The Pursuit of Victory Brian Bond, 1998 In Western Europe and North America the idea that war can deliberately be used as an instrument of policy has become unfashionable not least because of the carnage of two World Wars and the Americans humiliating experience in Vietnam But wars are still fought Those who start wars clearly believe they are worthwhile Why In this original and provocative study Brian Bond discusses the successes and failures of military and political leaders in their pursuit of victory over the last two centuries Professor Bond argues that in order to be counted victorious a leader has to progress beyond military triumph to preserve the political control needed to secure an advantageous and enduring peace settlement Napoleon was a brilliant general but failed as a statesman Bismarck on the other hand was a success in skilfully exploiting Moltke's victories on the battlefield to create a unified Germany In the First World War Germany and her allies were defeated but at such great cost that confidence in the idea that war could be controlled and the pursuit of victory made rational received a terrible shock Germany and Japan exploited their military opportunities between 1939 and 1942 but lack of political control and moderation brought them catastrophic defeat After 1945 nuclear weapons and the increased complexity of international relations blurred the identity of victors and losers and seemed to make the idea of a decisive victory almost unthinkable But this study warns against the assumption that war as an instrument of policy has now been completely discarded The Falklands and Gulf conflicts show that aggressors are still prepared to risk war for tangible goals and that their opponents are quite capable of responding successfully to such challenges The World in the Twentieth Century Jeremy Black, 2016-02-12 From this major author comes a totally unique history of the twentieth century Eschewing the traditional model for histories of this kind blow by blow political narratives typically overloaded with detail Jeremy Black offers us instead a brilliant thematic account of the last 100 years with the environment and the continuing strength of religious belief at its centre Looking back to the 1910s and 1920s Black begins with the greatest issue of all the natural environment and its destruction and moves to show how our world been transformed by urbanisation and development Amazing developments took place across the century men walked on the moon the internet revolutionised communications advances in health and medicine developments in manufacturing and technology economic globalization all have changed the way different parts of the world related to each other How have these revolutionary changes impacted on religion and politics In the final sections of the book Black looks at the persistence and growing extremism in religious belief how change creates instability and wars and how power blocs emerged and collapsed in response to all these developments This is twentieth century world history on a truly global scale The Twentieth Century World forces us to rethink the way we view the past and offers us a new way to understand the present A World After Liberalism Matthew Rose, 2021-01-01 A bracing account of liberalism's most radical critics introducing one of the most controversial movements of the twentieth century One of the best discussions of the extreme right's intellectual foundations that I have ever read George Hawley author of Making Sense of the Alt Right One of the best books I've read this year Its importance at this critical moment in our history cannot be overstated Rod Dreher American Conservative In this eye opening book Matthew Rose introduces us to one of the most controversial intellectual movements of the twentieth century the radical right and discusses its adherents different attempts to imagine political societies after the death or decline of liberalism Questioning democracy s most basic norms and practices these critics rejected ideas about human equality minority rights religious toleration and cultural pluralism not out of implicit biases but out of explicit principle They disagree profoundly on race religion economics and political strategy but they all agree that a postliberal political life will soon be possible Focusing on the work of Oswald Spengler Julius Evola Francis Parker Yockey Alain de Benoist and Samuel Francis Rose shows how such thinkers are animated by religious aspirations and anxieties that are ultimately in tension with Christian teachings and the secular values those teachings birthed in modernity Prologue ,1991 Kiev 1941 David Stahel,2011-11-03 In just four weeks in the summer of 1941 the German Wehrmacht wrought unprecedented destruction on four Soviet armies conquering central Ukraine and killing or capturing three quarters of a million men This was the Battle of Kiev one of the largest and most decisive battles of World War II and for Hitler and Stalin a battle of crucial importance In this book David Stahel charts the battle s dramatic course and aftermath uncovering the irreplaceable losses suffered by Germany s panzer groups despite their battlefield gains and the implications of these losses for the German war effort He illuminates the inner workings of the German army as well as the experiences of ordinary soldiers showing that with the Russian winter looming and Soviet resistance still unbroken victory came at huge cost and confirmed the turning point in Germany s war in the East The World's Story Eva March Tappan,1914 The Story of Mankind Hendrik Willem Van Loon,1926 Winner of the first John Newbery Medal in 1921 here is van Loon s renowned classic record of historic adventure updated for the 21st century The World Peril of 1910 George Chetwynd Griffith,1907 World in Flames Ian Slater,2020-05-01 The battle rages on every front NATO armored divisions have broken out from near certain defeat in the Soviet ringed Dortmund Bielefeld Pocket on the North German Plain Russian SPETS commandos dressed in captured American uniforms have infiltrated NATO lines to sow confusion among Allied troops Despite being faster than the American planes Russian MiG 25s and Sukhoi 15s are unable to maintain air superiority over the western Aleutians due to the upgraded pulse Doppler look up look down radar on the American F 16 Falcons and the advanced AN AWG 9 weapon control system on the F 14 Tomcats With the war turning against them the Russians are readying a submarine offensive against the American West Coast There is no telling when they will escalate to even more dangerous tactics including nuclear weapons On every front the war that once seemed impossible blazes its now inevitable path of worldwide destruction There is no way to know how it will end The Place of the United States in a World Organization for the Maintenance of Peace American Academy of Political and Social Science,1921 Transactions Royal Society of New Zealand,1895 A Commentary on
