World At War:

An Imperial World at War Ashley Jackson, Yasmin Khan, Gajendra Singh, 2016-07-01 At the start of the Second World War Britain was at the height of its imperial power and it is no surprise that it drew upon the global resources of the Empire once war had been declared Whilst this international aspect of Britain's war effort has been well studied in relation to the military contribution of individual dominions and colonies relatively little has been written about the Empire as a whole As such An Imperial World at War makes an important contribution to the historiography relating to the British Empire and its wartime experience It argues that the war needs to be viewed in imperial terms that the role of forces drawn from the Empire is poorly understood and that the war's impact on colonial societies is barely grasped at all in conventional accounts Through a series of case studies the volume demonstrates the fundamental role played by the Empire in Britain's war effort and highlights some of the consequences for both Britain and its imperial territories Themes include the recruitment and utilization of military formations drawn from imperial territories the experience of British forces stationed overseas the use of strategic bases located in the colonies British policy in the Middle East and the challenge posed by growing American power the occupation of enemy colonies and the enemy occupation of British colonies colonial civil defence measures financial support for the war effort supplied by the Empire and the commemoration of the war The Afterword anticipates a new decentred history of the war that properly acknowledges the role and importance of people and places throughout the colonial and semi colonial world This volume emanates from a conference organized as part of the Home Fronts of the Empire Commonwealth project The project was generously funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council and led by Yasmin Khan and Ashley Jackson with Gajendra Singh as Postdoctoral Research Assistant The World at War (eBook) Tim McNeese, 2000-09-01 The World at War 1920 1945 covers the period from the signing of the Versailles Treaty which signaled the end of World War I through World War II and the defeat of Japan Special emphasis is given to the stressed postwar economies of Europe following the Great War which set the stage for further international conflict The Roaring Twenties the stock market crash of 1929 The Great Depression Roosevelt's New Deal the rise of fascism and the grim legacies of the Holocaust figure prominently in this volume Also discussed is the influence of historic personalities such as Hitler Stalin Churchill Roosevelt and Mussolini Challenging map exercises and provocative review questions encourage meaningful reflection and historical analysis The World at War (ENHANCED eBook) Tim McNeese, 2000-09-01 The World at War 1920 1945 covers the period from the signing of the Versailles Treaty which signaled the end of World War I through World War II and the defeat of Japan Special emphasis is given to the stressed postwar economies of Europe following the Great War which set the stage for further international conflict The Roaring Twenties the stock market crash of 1929 The Great Depression Roosevelt's New Deal the rise of fascism and the grim legacies of the Holocaust figure prominently in this volume Also discussed is the influence of historic personalities such as Hitler Stalin Churchill Roosevelt and Mussolini Challenging

American Women in a World at War Judy Barrett Litoff, David Clayton Smith, 1997 This title brings together twenty five writings by women who share their rich and varied World War II experiences from serving in the military to working on the home front to preparing for the postwar world By providing evidence of their active and resourceful roles in the war effort as workers wives and mothers these women offer eloquent testimony that World War II was indeed everybody s war Litoff and Smith combine pieces by well known writers such as Margaret Culkin Banning and Nancy Wilson Ross with important but largely forgotten personal accounts by ordinary women living in extraordinary times This volume is divided into the six sections listed below

Preparing for War In the Military At Far Flung Fronts On the Home Front War Jobs Preparing for the Postwar World

World's Work ,1915 Missouri School Journal ,1914 The World's Work ,1919 A history of our time

Ourselves ,1918 JLA: Our Worlds at War (2001-) #1 Jeph Loeb, 2012-05-16 An Our Worlds at War tie in Imperix has initiated his first strike on Earth Now Earth s first line of defense the JLA is going full throttle against him and his probes Witness the full impact on Earth as the War against Imperix begins and one battle is quickly lost in a big way The Standard ,1917

Our War Too Margaret Paton-Walsh, 2002 In the late 1930s a number of American women especially those allied with various peace and isolationist groups protested against the nation s entry into World War II While their story is fairly well known Margaret Paton Walsh reveals a far less familiar story of women who fervently felt that American intervention was absolutely necessary Paton Walsh recounts how the United States became involved in the war but does so through the eyes of American women who faced it as a necessary evil Covering the period between 1935 and 1941 she examines how these women functioned as political actors even though they were excluded from positions of power through activism in women s organizations informal women s networks and even male dominated lobbying groups In the Great Debate over whether America should enter the war some women favored aid to the Allies not because they hoped for war but because they hoped aid would forestall more direct U S involvement but also because they believed war was preferable to a Nazi victory Paton Walsh shows that this activism involved some of the most prominent women of their day Elizabeth Cutter Morrow whose son in law Charles Lindbergh was an isolationist spokesman supported the revision of the Neutrality Acts to allow the sale of arms to the Allies and expressed her support in a national radio broadcast Soon other women joined this debate Esther Brunauer of the AAUW journalist Dorothy Thompson and organizations like the League of Women Voters and National Women s Trade Union League broke from the pacifist tradition to advocate American aid for the Allied cause Focusing on the conflict in Europe Paton Walsh shows how these women grasped the implications of the Lend Lease program for America s entry into the war but supported it nevertheless By late 1941 the Women s Division of the Fight for Freedom Committee had been established no longer merely advocating aid to Britain to keep American boys out of battle this organization supported direct American involvement in the war as a means of stopping Nazi oppression While most historians have focused on women's pacifism Paton Walsh connects women more directly to world events and shows how those interventionists reformulated maternalist ideas to justify and explain their beliefs Our War Too is a story of American women trying to reconcile the irreconcilable to preserve both their principles and their peace It expands our understanding of women as political actors and thinkers about foreign policy as it sheds new light on American public opinion over the build up to the war
