Dynamics of Marketing in African Nations Sonny Nwankwo, Joseph F. Aiyeku, 2002-05-30 Consider Africa not with pre established mindsets unexamined assumptions and bland generalizations but for what Africa actually is a setting in which marketers can gather new ideas and test old ones and perhaps emerge with a more varied certain sense of what the marketing enterprise itself is all about Nwankwo Aiyeku and their contributing authors all specialists with a remarkably wide range of experience and viewpoints uncover the unexpected factors that they are certain will determine the success of selling just about any product or service to established or developing African nations Original eclectic and agenda setting their book provides a startling insight into the dynamics of marketing in this fascinating region of the world as it continues to initiate the new macroeconomic and political reforms that are transforming the African continent into an important player on the international business scene Nwankwo and Aiyeku see their book as a welcome attempt to identify and explore the institutional processes in which not only the study but also the practice of marketing is embedded They work with three main themes the processual issues including theory development and the reconceptualization of conventional paradigms the nature of the interrelationships that shape the dynamics of marketing overall and the context specific dimensions of marketing generally its marketing operations As the volume editors state By and large African nations present new contexts and new strategic challenges As they become focused certain general approaches as to how various characteristics influence marketing behaviors have to be established This book through addressing these contextual issues provides a better focus for creating a relevant set of marketing activities in African situations

Politics and Markets in the Wake of the Asian Crisis Mark Beeson, Kanishka Jayasuriya, Hyuk-Rae Kim, Richard Robison, 2003-09-02 This book is a challenging volume by distinguished leading scholars of East Asian political economy it provides a distinct alternative to simplistic accounts of the Asian crisis which generally swing between an emphasis on convergence imposed by global economic forces and the resurrection of the special patterns of East Asian economic governance The authors argue that global forces and domestic structures are engendering new forms of economic and political regulation in East Asia While these signal the death knell of the developmental state this in itself does not presuppose a convergence towards a standard model of global capitalism The arguments in this book will contribute significantly to the construction of a new research agenda for comparative political economy at the dawn of a new century Politics and Markets in the Wake of the Asian Crisis covers a range of East Asian countries including the People s Republic of China South Korea Indonesia Thailand and Malaysia All the studies are linked together by a common endeavour to explore the dynamic interaction between global economic forces and domestic structures The book is at the cutting edge of the study of East Asian political economy and is distinguished by the attention it pays to the regional and international context of the crisis It also contains theoretically sophisticated analyses of organisations such as APEC and the IMF
