Chesney,1995 Written for and about the special population of parents of children with cancer this book explores the remarkable effectiveness of self help groups and profiles their rapid rise as a resource complementing traditional health care Mark A Chesler and Barbara K Chesney draw on their own experience as members of such groups and on a combined thirty years of research on self help They provide essential information for families of children with cancer and other chronic life threatening illnesses for health care professionals working with them and for scholars of self help and psychosocial processes in health care including explanations of how self help groups function why they are effective and how they can be created and maintained The authors show that through self help groups parents can learn coping skills find personal affirmation and mutual support and share the wisdom gained from their experiences Chesler and Chesney find that group participation improves parents coping capabilities in the face of terrible odds and fosters an increased sense of empowerment as they care and advocate for their children in an increasingly complex health care system Cancer and Self Help distills the experiences of more than fifty self help groups and their members over twelve years It also places cancer self help groups in a larger context comparing them to other social movement organizations and to other strategies for personal coping or change The book includes the voices of individual parents and professionals recounting their experiences detailed examples of group activities programs operating procedures and organizational structures fundamental how to information on forming a self help group comments on the roles and dilemmas of health care professionals in these groups and on the medical care system as a whole and interpretations of these individual and organizational dynamics

The Improvement Era ,1913 The Christian Advocate ,1901 Good Housekeeping ,1908 American Cooperative News ,1896 Good Government Francis Ellington Leupp,George McAneny,Henry Grafton Chapman,1898 The Farmer's Weekly ,1929 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ,1900 The Pennsylvania School Journal Pennsylvania. Dept. of Public Instruction,1875 Metanoia Adam Ellwanger,2020-02-25 Western culture is in a moment when wholly new kinds of personal transformations are possible but authentic transformation requires both personal testimony and public recognition In this book Adam Ellwanger takes a distinctly rhetorical approach to analyzing how the personal and the public relate to an individual s transformation and develops a new vocabulary that enables a critical assessment of the concept of authenticity The concept of metanoia is central to this project Charting the history of metanoia from its original use in the classical tradition to its adoption by early Christians as a term for religious conversion Ellwanger shows that metanoia involves a change within a person that results in a truer version of him or herself a change in character or ethos He then applies this theory to our contemporary moment finding that metanoia provides unique insight into modern forms of self transformation Drawing on ancient and medieval sources including Thucydides Plato Paul the Apostle and Augustine as well as contemporary discourses of self transformation such as the public testimonies of Caitlyn Jenner and Rachel Dolezal Ellwanger elucidates the role of language in signifying and authenticating identity Timely and original Ellwanger s study formulates a transhistorical theory of personal transformation that will be of interest to scholars working in social theory philosophy rhetoric and the history of Christianity
