Social Evolution Benjamin Kidd,1906 Social Evolution and Political Theory Leonard Trelawny Hobhouse,1911
Social Evolution Kidd,1895 Societal Evolution Albert Galloway Keller,1915 Human Social Evolution Kyle Summers,Bernard Crespi,2013-06-24 Presents classic papers or chapters by Dr Alexander each focused on an important theme from his work The Evolution of Human Sociality Stephen K. Sanderson,2001 This text attempts a broad theoretical synthesis within the field of sociology and its closely allied sister discipline of anthropology It draws together these disciplines theoretical approaches into a synthesized theory called Darwinian conflict theory Developments in American Sociological Theory, 1915-1950 Roscoe C. Hinkle,1994-07-01 This book presents a comprehensive extended and systematic analysis of social theory as it developed between the two World Wars a period during which major transformation occurred Centering on the continuities on the one hand and discontinuities on the other in substantive theory it deals with the major ideas of Cooley Ellwood Park Thomas Ogburn Bernard Chapin Mead Faris Hankins MacIver Reuter Lundberg H P Becker Parsons Znaniecki Sorokin and Blumer Finally the problematic relevancy of the past for the present is directly confronted The author examines how basic assumptions of theory in particular periods have used relatively unique schema and generated considerable controversy Social Evolutionism Stephen K. Sanderson,1992 In Social Evolutionism Stephen Sanderson provide a lucid account of a body of theory that has profoundly affected both intellectual and popular assumptions about human nature society and behavior He describes the prominent and controversial role that evolutionary ideas have played in the development of social theory He demonstrates the diversity of evolutionary ideas by comparing their notions of causation their assumptions about human progress and the adequacy of their modes of explanation and interpretation of evidence Although he is highly critical of some aspects of evolutionary thinking and some modes of evolutionism Professor Sanderson shows that an evolutionary interpretation of world history contributes vital insights about the character of human social life Sociology Edward Cary Hayes,1930 The Laws of Social Evolution Franklin Monroe Sprague,1895 The Range of Social Theory Floyd Nelson House,1929 Social Evolution and Sociological Categories (Routledge Revivals) Paul Q. Hirst,2010-01-21 First published in 1976 this book is concerned with the nature of classification in the social sciences Its thesis is that classifications are dependent upon and are derived from theoretical explanations Classification is not a theoretically neutral typification or ordering of social forms This is because objects classified societies social institutions are not given to knowledge independently of the categories which construct them and because the categories of classification are themselves the products of theories Social Evolution Benjamin Kidd,1920 Christianity and Social Science Charles Abram Ellwood,1923 The Eighth Day Richard Newbold Adams,1988-03-01 Can human social evolution be described in terms common to other sciences most specifically as an energy process The Eighth Day reflects a conviction that the human trajectory for all its uniqueness and indeterminism will never be satisfactorily understood until it is framed in dynamics that are common to all of nature The problem in doing this however lies in ourselves The major social theories have failed to treat human social evolution as a component of broader natural processes The Eighth Day argues that the energy process provides a basis for explaining comparing and measuring complex social evolution Using traditional ecological energy flow studies as background society is conceived as a self organization of energy This perspective enables Adams to analyze society in term of the natural selection of self organizing energy forms and the trigger processes basic to it Domestication civilization socioeconomic development and the regulation of contemporary industrial nation states serve to illustrate the approach A principal aim is to explore the limitation that energy process imposes on human social evolution as well as to clarify the alternatives that it allows Richly informed by contemporary anthropological historicism sociobiology and Marxism The Eighth Day avoids simple reductionism and denies facile ideological categorization Adams builds on work in nonequilibrium thermodynamics and theoretical biology and brings three decades of his own work to an analysis of human society that demands an extreme materialism in which human thought and action find a central place Between Reason and History David S. Owen,2012-02-01 Between Reason and History examines the role of the idea of progress both in Ju rgen Habermas s critical social theory and in critical social theory in general The reception to Habermas s magnum opus The Theory of Communicative Action has tended to downplay the theory of social evolution it contains but there are no in depth examinations of this aspect of Habermas s critical theory This book fills this gap by providing a comprehensive and detailed examination of Habermas s theory of social evolution its significance within the wider scope of his critical social theory and the importance of a theoretical understanding of history for any adequate critical social theory The ^AOxford Handbook of Peaceful Change in International Relations T. V. Paul,Deborah Welch Larson,Harold A. Trinkunas,Anders Wivel,Ralf Emmers,2021-08-05 This work provides a thorough examination of research on the problem of change in the international arena and the reasons why change happens peacefully at times and at others violently It contains over forty chapters which examine the historical theoretical global regional and national foreign policy dimensions of peaceful change As the world enters a new round of power transition conflict involving a rapidly rising China and a relatively declining United States this Handbook provides a necessary resource for decisionmakers and scholars engaged in this vital area of research The Essential Factors of Social Evolution Thomas Nixon Carver,1935 Education ,1910 Readings in Sociology to Accompany An Introduction to Sociology Jerome Davis,Harry Elmer Barnes,1927
