The Past Recaptured)* Marcel Proust, 1927 Interdisciplinary Approaches to Language C. Georgopoulos, Roberta Ishihara, 2012-12-06 The thirty two papers in this collection are offered to Professor S Y Kuroda by his friends as a gesture of their deep respect and enduring affection One of the many ways in which Professor Kuroda has impressed us all is in the breadth of his interests and areas of expertise He is one of those rare scholars whose work and interests span the whole range of his discipline He is a figure of such intellectual stature that he has inspired influenced and encouraged researchers in an astonishing variety of projects He continues to do so at an unslackened pace today just as his own productivity remains vigorous But mention of Yuki's inspiration and influence is inadequate without mention of his special humorousness his mischievous wit his charm and as a friend has added a unique warmth Knowing Yuki and counting him quality to our lives We who have contributed to this collection have done so in partial acknowledgement of and gratitude for this benign and masterful influence The contributions to the collection reflect the range of Yuki's own interests and cover a rich variety of approaches to the analysis of natural language These include papers in philosophy psychology computer science artificial intelligence and linguistics and within linguistics the entire breadth of the field phonology morphology syntax semantics pragmatics and computation Though diverse in their themes language areas and foci the papers are bound by their authors common bond to Yuki William Faulkner Henry Claridge, 1999 This collection concentrates on earlier less accessible material on Faulkner that will complement rather than duplicate existing library collections Vol I General Perspectives Memories Recollections and Interviews Contemporary Political Opinion Vol II Assessments on Individual Works from Early Writings to As I Lay Dying Vol III Assessments on Individual Works from Sanctuary to Go Down Moses and Other Stories Vol IV Assessments on Individual Works from the Short Stories to The Reivers Faulkner and the South Faulkner and Race Faulkner and the French Signifying Place Sheila Gaffey, 2017-11-28 Through a socio semiotic analysis of promotional materials used by both producers of quality products and their support organizations this book investigates the use of imagery especially images of place in three contrasting regions of Ireland It highlights the role of place particularly rural imagery in the promotion of handcrafts and rural tourism services and suggests some of the meanings which may be contacted through the use of such imagery Much of the research to date in this field has concentrated on the use of imagery to promote particular places rather than products and in an Irish context on the promotion of Ireland as a tourism destination This book focuses on the regional and local level to examine the creation and use of more micro place specific images both real and mythical by small and medium sized businesses and explores the extent to which the two industries borrow from and feed into firstly each other and secondly macro place myths and iconographies Report on the Jail Administration of the Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam for the Year ,1901

What Does It Mean to Grow Old? Thomas R. Cole,1987-08 In What Does It Mean to Grow Old essayists come to grips as best they can with the phenomenon of an America that is about to become the Old Country They have been drawn from every relevant discipline gerontology social medicine politics health anthropology ethics law and asked to speak their mind Most of them write extremely well and their sharply individual voices are heard Library Notes North Carolina College for Women. Library,1930 In Search of Lost Time Marcel Proust,2000 In search of lost time is Proust s masterpiece and was described by Somerset Maugham as the greatest novel of the 20th century This edition contains notes addenda and synopses Papers ,1929 Report on the administration of Assam ,1895 The Twentieth-Century World of Henry James Adeline R. Tintner,2000-05-01 Conventional analyses of Henry James conclude with the completed novels of the major phase and the revisions of the New York Edition 1907 1909 However James lived on to write vigorously for nearly a decade longer In this compelling study Adeline R Tintner perhaps the foremost living James scholar focuses her expertise on the writer s final years exploring how his work developed and how his ideas changed in response to events in the twentieth century As Tintner illustrates despite his age and the long career behind him James heralded in his later works the modernism that would be most fully represented by Joyce Eliot and Proust The twentieth century came to life for James during his long delayed visit to America in 1904 and 1905 This trip resulted in his critical look at his native country The American Scene 1907 a book Tintner argues is only now beginning to be appreciated The trip also revitalized his review of his body of work in the famed New York Edition Tintner explores James s revisions of his earlier novels especially of Roderick Hudson The American and most important the retouched Portrait of a Lady in which he refined Isabel Archer s aesthetic tastes to match his own She also reads James s late autobiographical writings as a form of experimental fiction that would be the hallmark of twentieth century modernism Indeed Tintner explains that James s final writings demonstrate how he thoroughly embraced the new century and anticipated several of the chief ideas that would dominate modern literature He reacted to the new economy and to the preoccupation with money in his unfinished novel The Ivory Tower explored the idea of the interaction between historical time and the present with his uncompleted The Sense of the Past and expressed concern with the deprivation of culture among the lower middle classes The flying machine the cinematograph and the Kodak entered his twentieth century vocabulary and he parodied his own usurping consciousness in his Monologue for Ruth Draper James even relaxed his treatment of sexuality as is apparent in his suggestion of autoeroticism in The Figure in the Carpet and in what seems to be a description of the gay scene in The Sacred Fount He became a propagandist during World War I devoting the end of his career to urging American entry into the conflict His last published writings before he died of a stroke on February 28 1916 were emotional tributes to casualties of the war A fitting finale to Tintner s five astonishing works on the world of Henry James The Twentieth Century World of Henry James will stand as one of the most significant volumes on the writer s last years Through an amazing excavation of James s life and work Tintner uncovers many of the modernist themes that preoccupied him as he entered the new century and that in turn were to preoccupy many of the writers who came to maturity in the first half of the twentieth century Quarterly Review of Literature ,1977 Administration Report on the Jails of Bengal Bengal (India). Jails, Office of Inspector General,1923 Administration Report on the Jails of the Bengal Presidency Bengal (India). Jail Dept,1903
