suffered greatly The roof had fallen in weighed down by heavy snow Then a hurricane had blown a wall over and Ming li the son up all night and exposed to a bitter cold wind had caught pneumonia Long days of illness followed with the spending of extra money for medicine All their scant savings had soon melted away and at the shop where Ming li had been employed his place was filled by another When at last he arose from his sick bed he was too weak for hard labour and there seemed to be no work in the neighbouring villages for him to do Night after night he came home trying not to be discouraged but in his heart feeling the deep pangs of sorrow that come to the good son who sees his mother suffering for want of food and clothing Bless his good heart said the poor widow after he had gone No mother ever had a better boy I hope he is right in saying the gods will provide It has been getting so much worse these past few weeks that it seems now as if my stomach were as empty as a rich man s brain Why even the rats have deserted our cottage and there s nothing left for poor Tabby while old Blackfoot is nearly dead from starvation
