World Within The World:

The World's Work, 1922 Experience on the Edge: Theorizing Liminality Brady Wagoner, Tania

Zittoun, 2021-10-19 Liminality has become a key concept within the social sciences with a growing number of publications devoted to it in recent years. The concept is needed to address those aspects of human experience and social life that fall outside of ordered structures. In contrast to the clearly defined roles and routines that define so much of industrial work and economic life, it highlights spaces of transition, indefiniteness, ambiguity, play, and creativity. Thus, it is an indispensable concept and a necessary counterweight to the overemphasis on structural influences on human behavior. This book aims to use the concept of liminality to develop a culturally and experientially sensitive psychology. This is accomplished by first setting out an original theoretical framework focused on understanding the liminal sources of cultural experience and second, an application of the concept to a number of different domains such as tourism, pilgrimage, aesthetics, children's play, art therapy, and medical diagnosis. Finally, all these domains are then brought together in a concluding commentary chapter that puts them in relation to an overarching theoretical framework. This book will be useful for graduate students and researchers in cultural psychology, critical psychology, psychosocial psychology, developmental psychology, health psychology, anthropology, and the social sciences, cultural studies, among others. International Handbook of Research in Professional and Practice-based Learning Stephen Billett, Christian Harteis, Hans Gruber, 2014-07-15 The International Handbook of Research in Professional and Practice-based Learning discusses what constitutes professionalism, examines the concepts and practices of professional and practice-based learning, including associated research traditions and educational provisions. It also explores professional learning in institutions of higher and vocational education, as well as the practice settings where professionals work and learn, focusing on both initial and ongoing development and how that learning is assessed. The Handbook features research from expert contributors in education, studies of the professions, and accounts of research methodologies from a range of informing disciplines. It is organized in two parts. The first part sets out conceptions of professionalism at work, how professions work, and learning can be understood, and examines the kinds of institutional practices organized for developing occupational capacities. The second part focuses on procedural issues associated with learning for and through professional practice, and how assessment of professional capacities might progress. The key premise of this Handbook is that during both initial and ongoing professional development, individual learning processes are influenced and shaped through their professional environment and practices. Moreover, in turn, the practice and processes of learning through practice are shaped by their development, all of which are required to be understood through a range of research orientations, methods, and findings. This Handbook will appeal to academics working in fields of professional practice, including those who are concerned about developing these capacities in their students. In addition, students and research students will also find this Handbook a key reference resource to the field. Postcolonial Literatures in English Anke

Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2019-04-27 The term postcolonial literatures in English designates English language literatures from Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania as well as the literatures of diasporic communities who have moved from those regions to the global north This volume introduces the central themes of postcolonial literary studies and delineates how these themes are reflected and elaborated in exemplary literary works by postcolonial authors from around the world It also offers succinct definitions of key terms like Orientalism hybridity Indigeneity or writing back

Philosophical Analysis D.S. Austin, 2012-12-06 Analytic philosophy is alive and in good health as this collection of twenty previously unpublished essays most ably demonstrates The reader will find here assembled some of the finest writings of modern analytic philosophers at the top of their form Matthews discusses Plato's attempt to deal with the problem of false belief about identities Parson evaluates Russell's early theory of denoting phrases Chisholm exhibits the utility of thirteen epistemic categories Plantinga criticizes Chisholm's account of justification Conee argues that solving the Gettier Problem is important and Ginet proposes a solution to it Lehrer criticizes an argument based on the simplicity of our belief in material objects and other minds R Feldman defends an account of having evidence F Feldman defends a propositional account of pleasure Van Fraassen criticizes Garber's solution to the problem of old evidence Casta eda investigates the nature of negation McKay argues that de se analyses of belief do not account for belief de re Richard argues that no Fregean semantics for belief attribution will succeed Ryckman suggests that the Millian theory of names has little to do with the theory of belief is no threat to God's omniscience Dunn investigates constraints imposed on non classical modal logics by extensionality Fitch argues that singular propositions perform important functions in modal logic Jubien evaluates arguments for and against possible worlds Ratzsch argues that there must be a deeper source of nomicality than ordinary subjunctives and Stalnaker argues that there is room for determinacy of identity and indeterminacy in reference
