Soft Systems Methodology Peter Checkland, 1999 Systems Thinking Systems Practice Whether by design accident or merely synchronicity Checkland appears to have developed a habit of writing seminal publications near the start of each decade which establish the basis and framework for systems methodology research for that decade Hamish Rennie Journal of the Operational Research Society 1992 Thirty years ago Peter Checkland set out to test whether the Systems Engineering SE approach highly successful in technical problems could be used by managers coping with the unfolding complexities of organizational life The straightforward transfer of SE to the broader situations of management was not possible but by insisting on a combination of systems thinking strongly linked to real world practice Checkland and his collaborators developed an alternative approach Soft Systems Methodology SSM which enables managers of all kinds and at any level to deal with the subtleties and confusions of the situations they face This work established the now accepted distinction between hard systems thinking in which parts of the world are taken to be systems which can be engineered and soft systems thinking in which the focus is on making sure the process of inquiry into real world complexity is itself a system for learning Systems Thinking Systems Practice 1981 and Soft Systems Methodology in

Action 1990 together with an earlier paper Towards a Systems based Methodology for Real World Problem Solving 1972 have long been recognized as classics in the field Now Peter Checkland has looked back over the three decades of SSM development brought the account of it up to date and reflected on the whole evolutionary process which has produced a mature SSM SSM A 30 Year Retrospective here included with Systems Thinking Systems Practice closes a chapter on what is undoubtedly the most significant single research programme on the use of systems ideas in problem solving Now retired from full time university work Peter Checkland continues his research as a Leverhulme Emeritus Fellow

Action Research in Action Kenichi Uchiyama, 2025-07-10 This is the first book to provide the fundamental backbone for the field of action research AR One of the main characteristics of AR is to achieve a kind of learning based on experience through action in the real world connecting and reconciling theory and practice by reflection for in by action A standard form of AR has not yet been found however because it is difficult for conventional academicians to effectively bridge the gap between objectivity in theory and subjectivity in practice For the past 50 years soft systems methodology SSM has developed the methodology to deal with subjectivity by rigorously adhering to a coherent guideline of a systemic means for discussion for example accommodation i e living with different individual worldviews The author began to reinterpret SSM from an Eastern context at Lancaster University UK and received a Ph D at the London School of Economics introducing the actuality point of view This idea originated with the eminent Japanese psychiatrist Bin Kimura who argued that schizophrenics do not lose touch with reality but with actuality That is there are two aspects of the world reality and actuality based on Latin res thing and actio action They can recognize all things of the world as reality as expressed by that noun but cannot comprehend with a feeling of reality the predicate actuality Introducing actuality into SSM as a new dimension opened a new perspective in SSM both theoretically and practically This topic is discussed in detail in Part II of this book Part I contains three chapters Chapter

1 provides a basic conceptual overview of SSM Chapter 2 provides an actual trace of the evolution of SSM over the last 25 years One topic that is expected to become the subject of serious practical application of SSM in the future is its application to resilience This is discussed in some detail in Chapter 3 The actuality aspect of SSM has been used for more than 20 years in various contexts yielding many good results Among those are a new explanation of accommodation using paleo logic or predicate logic a new management cycle based on actuality such as learning for in by action and the novelty of the methodological tool itself Those 20 years of learning authenticate the guideline for the way of discussion or agreement that is relevant to actuality Especially in the recent Covid 19 pandemic it has oriented the restoration of actuality in the digital based society where actuality is deadened This result is also dealt with in Part I
