United States of America ,1932 The Stones Cry Out Molyda Szymusiak,1999 The Stones Cry Out is startlingly good as literature It is also an important addition to a thin historical record Her account of the revolutionary rhetoric set against the reality of what the revolutionaries were actually doing is as macabre as any of the descriptions of bodies The Wall Street Journal This is a powerful and compelling story of terror struggle and death sprinkled with moments of tenderness written by a woman who writes not of politics but only of what she experienced New York Times Book Review In 1975 Molyda Szymusiak her adoptive name the daughter of a high Cambodian official was twelve years old and leading a relatively peaceful life in Phnom Penh Suddenly on April 17 Khmer Rouge radicals seized the capital and drove all its inhabitants into the countryside The chaos that followed has been widely publicized most notably in the movie The Killing Fields Murderous brutality coupled with raging famine caused the death of more than two million people nearly a third of the population This powerful memoir documents the horror Cambodians experienced in daily life Electrical Dealer ,1957 Enochim David Kendal Jones,2014-09-29 David is a Chartered Surveyor who was born raised and still lives on The North Wales Coast He is married to Dawn and has two grown up children For many years David has been a Governor at a local Primary School and always enjoys his interaction with the children David is an active member of a local Church which he has attended since being a teenager and where now he is an Elder and Lay Preacher For years David ran the teenagers Bible Class and thrived on the awkward and searching questions young people ask From these lively discussions developed some of the ideas that lit the spark for Enochim ENOCHIM Anna and Jamie were soon to celebrate their twelfth birthday and looked forward to getting the usual presents However the early birthday present they received was to be attacked in their own home by two mysterious strangers which left them distraught and their mum fighting for her life Little did the twins know that this tragedy was the start of an adventure which would lead them to discover their heritage as Enochim and take them on a journey to The Crystal Sea and beyond to The Third Dimension On their road to discovery the twins would meet other Enochim and beings not of our world many who were to help them but others who were out to do them harm The road they were now travelling would teach them many new and old truths and would lead them to witness the greatest battle the universe and history had ever seen But as well as these universal truths Jamie and Anna would also discover the truth about their dead grandfather and the wolf he had to battle The story of Jamie and Anna is the story of The Enochim and even now The half has not yet been told
