Women Who Sell Sex Elizabeth Krumeri Mancuso, Bennett E. Postlethwaite, 2020-06-08 Based on leading empirical psychological research from around the world this book offers valuable insights on women who sell sex It synthesizes the extensive body of scholarly work on the topic of women selling sex from a psychological perspective in order to understand why women choose to do so In turn the book highlights a range of important sociocultural contexts surrounding the sale of sex that are major sources of stress and examines how women cope with these circumstances Illustrating the multi faceted nature of selling sex the book will contribute to debates on individual and societal responses to this major sociopolitical and at the same time deeply personal issue Including original case material and outlining future directions for researchers it offers an informative and engaging resource for academics researchers students and professionals around the globe

Young People, Vulnerabilities and Prostitution/Sex for Compensation in the Nordic Countries: A Study of Knowledge, Social Initiatives and Legal Measures Holmström, Charlotta, Bjønness, Jeanett, Jensen, Mie Birk, Seikkula, Minna, Antonsdóttir, Hildur Fjóra, Skilbrei, May-Len, Söderholm, Tara, Grönvall, Ylva, 2019-11-20 What do we know about the extent of young people s experiences of sex for compensation in the Nordic countries Are such experiences addressed by social initiatives and how do legal measures affect them This report is based on country studies focusing on knowledge about sex for compensation among young people in the Nordic countries The five country studies show how research on the extent of and the motivations and conditions for young people selling sex in the Nordic countries is rather scarce and that there are few social initiatives that target young people specifically The interviews with service providers and the literature reviewed point to individual vulnerabilities related to young people s experiences of compensational sex In order to develop preventive measures more knowledge on structural factors related to experiences of compensational sex is needed Prostitution in Twentieth-Century Europe Sonja Dolinsek, Siobhán Hearne, 2023-05-08 This book places prostitution at the very centre of European history in the twentieth century With its wide geographical focus from Italy to the USSR via Sweden Germany occupied Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia as well as the international stage of the United Nations this book encourages comparative perspectives which have the potential to question deconstruct and re adjust distinctions between western eastern northern and southern European historical experiences This book moves beyond exploring state regulated prostitution which was the dominant approach to managing commercial sex across Europe in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries State regulation combined police surveillance the registration of women selling sex or suspected of doing so and compulsory medical examinations for registered women as well as various restrictions on personal movement and freedom The nine chapters shift focus onto the decades after the abolition of state regulated prostitution well into the second half of the twentieth century to examine the ruptures and continuities in state administrative and policing practices following the end of widespread legal toleration The varied chronology extends the parameters of existing historiography and explores how states grappled to understand or impose control over the commercial sex industry following the far reaching social economic and political upheaval of the Second World War The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Review of History Policing Prostitution Siobhán Hearne,2021 Policing Prostitution examines the complex world of commercial sex in the late Russian Empire investigating the lives of women who sold sex the men who paid for it mediators the police and wider urban communities S. Roscius Amerinus Marcus Tullius Cicero,1880
