Beatriz Dujovne, 2011-09-07 The tango is easily the most iconic dance of the last century its images as familiar as an old friend But are they the whole story Peeling back the poster propaganda that has always characterized the tango publicly this intimate study shows the invisible heart of the dance and the culture that raised it Drawing on direct experience and conversations with dancers it reveals much about the role of the tango in Argentinean culture Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Strangers to Friends Pratham Mittal, 2024-08-10 In a world brimming with serendipitous encounters and fleeting moments Strangers to Friends captures the essence of unexpected friendships that blossom in the most unforeseen circumstances This anthology delves into the heartwarming journeys of individuals whose paths crossed by chance only to forge bonds that withstand the test of time and distance Through a collection of poignant and inspiring narratives readers will embark on a voyage where strangers become confidants and acquaintances transform into lifelong companions Each story meticulously curated by Pratham Mittal unveils the beauty of human connections that arise when least expected highlighting the serendipity and wonder that life often holds Strangers to Friends is a testament to the magic of friendships that emerge from the unlikeliest of beginnings It celebrates the joy comfort and strength found in these bonds reminding us that sometimes the most profound relationships are the ones we never saw coming

Infernal Conference ; Or Dialogues of Devils John Macgowan, 1816 There Is a Place Where We Meet Purcell Mark Purcell, Mark Purcell, 2009-10 After over 25 years of working with people and attempting to help them as a psychotherapist trainer and teacher I have not only walked through the joys and struggles of my own life experiences and those of family and friends but I have had the benefits and privilege of learning and living vicariously while listening to untold hours with literally thousands of clients during their own struggling and searching I have been encouraged by and privileged to watch the healing growth and transcendence from life's struggles of thousands of people and I have felt pain and sadness in witnessing the deterioration resistance and self destruction of countless others I have come to believe that the primary determining factor of whether one experiences transcendence or deterioration is a determined willingness to go through the struggles and to develop an attitude that looks courageously into the eye of the storm and says assuredly You will not break me These poems are captured moments of my own experiences and reflections on the journeys of others as we have separately and together enjoyed the sunrises and sunsets while sometimes weathering the storms in between May these poems help you better understand yourself and your fellow travelers and no matter how difficult or deep your own abyss of darkness may you always find Hope THE RHYTHM OF LIFE Today could not have been Without yesterday s haunting wind Blowing by and changing my life Stirring up realities and other sundry strife The happenings of this hour Would rightfully have no power Without the joys and pains of past Shaping and creating me at last Had even one conversation been altered Or one person or event faltered This moment in which I now breathe Would not now be as is conceived There is a Great Choreographer somewhere someplace Who orchestrates my moves and your every pace Matching our steps in infinite perfect time Then this dance once confusing starts to rhyme Garrison Metropolis Metuge Ekane,2022-12-21 When it comes to the discourse of military intervention the market is saturated with all sorts of books of war Such books for the most part tend to be narrative accounts of heroic militarism which often do not address the aspect of societal rehabilitation Scores of these books do not highlight the relevance of interactive socialization as regards politically embattled nations that harbour sociologically shattered societies So there is a gap in the market when it comes to the rehabilitation of battled scarred societies with psychologically distressed masses Garrison Metropolis explores the adaptive rehabilitation of this embattled universe through a regenerative doctrine of military intervention called Pure militarism

Christianity and the Law of Migration Silas W. Allard,Kristin Heyer,Raj Nadella,2021-09-05 This collection brings together legal scholars and Christian theologians for an interdisciplinary conversation responding to the challenges of global migration Gathering 14 leading scholars from both law and Christian theology the book covers legal perspectives theological perspectives and key concepts in migration studies In Part 1 scholars of migration law and policy discuss the legal landscape of migration at both the domestic and international level In Part 2 Christian theologians ethicists and biblical scholars draw on the resources of the Christian tradition to think about migration In Part 3 each chapter is co authored by a scholar of law and a scholar of Christian theology who bring their respective resources and perspectives into conversation on key themes within migration studies The work provides a truly interdisciplinary introduction to the topic of migration for those who are new to the subject an opportunity for immigration lawyers and legal scholars to engage Christian theology an opportunity for pastors and Christian theologians to engage law and new insights on key frameworks for scholars who are already committed to the study of migration Living Theodrama Dr Wesley Vander Lugt,2014-04-28 A fresh creative introduction to theological ethics Offering an imaginative approach through dialogue with theatrical theory and practice Vander Lugt demonstrates a new way to integrate actor oriented and action oriented approaches to Christian ethics within a comprehensive theodramatic model This model affirms that life is a drama performed in the company of God and others providing rich metaphors for relating theology to everyday formation and performance in this drama This book contains not only a fruitful exchange between theological ethics and theatre but it also presents a promising method for interdisciplinary dialogue between theology and the arts that will be valuable for students and practitioners across many different fields

Action-camera Thomas J. Berghuis, Maya Kovskaya, 2009 This exhibition is curated by Keith Wallace and explores an aspect of performance art that is prominent in mainland China and in particular Beijing In mainland China performance art is a relatively recent development with not much more than twenty years of activity Action Camera Beijing Performance Photography examines the trajectory from the discreet underground performance art community centered in Beijing s East Village in the early 1990s to a current internationally recognized practice By the late 1990s performance art became a more clearly defined practice and for many artists the photograph functioned not only as a document but also as a work of art in itself As a further development many performances were specifically created for the camera rather than a live audience the viewer s access to the performance was exclusively through the photograph The shift from live performance to staged photograph and the reasons behind it are a central anchor to this exhibition
