The Last Thing You Surrender Leonard Pitts, Jr., 2019-02-05. Could you find the courage to do what's right in a world on fire? Pulitzer-winning journalist and bestselling novelist Freeman Leonard Pitts Jr.'s new historical page-turner is a great American tale of race and war following three characters from the Jim Crow South as they face the enormous changes World War II triggers in the United States. An affluent white marine survives Pearl Harbor at the cost of a black messman's life, only to be sent wracked with guilt to the Pacific and taken prisoner by the Japanese; a young black woman widowed by the same events at Pearl finds unexpected opportunity and a dangerous friendship in a segregated Alabama shipyard; feeding the war a black man who, as a child, saw his parents brutally lynched, is conscripted to fight Nazis for a country he despises and discovers a new kind of patriotism in the all-black 761st Tank Battalion. Set against a backdrop of violent racial conflict on both the front lines and the home front, The Last Thing You Surrender explores the powerful moral struggles of individuals from a divided nation. What does it take to change someone's mind about race? What does it take for a country and a people to move forward, transformed?

Stripping Down Donna Schaper, 1991. Literary Theory and Criminology Rafe McGregor, 2023-07-31. Literary Theory and Criminology demonstrates the significance of contemporary literary theory to the discipline of criminology, particularly to those criminologists who are primarily concerned with questions of power, inequality, and harm. Drawing on innovations in philosophical narrative, cultural, and pulp criminology, it sets out a deconstructive framework as part of a critical criminological critique praxis. This book comprises eight essays on globalisation, criminological fiction, poststructuralism, patriarchal political economy, racial capitalism, anthropocidal ecocide, critical theory, and critical praxis that argue for the value of contemporary literary theory to a critical criminology concerned with the construction of a just and sustainable reality in the face of climate change and other mass harms. This is the first criminology book to engage with literary theory from the perspective of criminology and provides a guide for criminologists who want to deploy literary theory as part of their research programmes. It supersedes existing engagements with poststructuralism in the philosophical criminological tradition because it entails neither a constructionist ontology nor a relativist epistemology. It shows criminologists how literary theory offers the tools to first deconstruct and then reconstruct meaning and value. Literary Theory and Criminology is essential reading for all critical criminological theorists.
