Strong Words Writing Social Strain In:

Emotions, Passions, and Power in Renaissance Italy Fabrizio Ricciardelli, Andrea Zorzi, 2025-10-01 Emotions depend on language cultural practices expectation and moral beliefs Hate fear cruelty and love are always turning history into the history of passion and lust because emotional life is always ready to overflow intellectual life This fascinating study of emotion in Renaissance Italy shows that emotions are built and created by the society in which they are expressed and conditioned The contributors examine among others the emotional language of the court around public execution religious practices and during outbreaks of disease

Everyday Renaissances Sarah Gwyneth Ross, 2016-03-08 Revealing an Italian Renaissance beyond Michelangelo and the Medici Sarah Gwyneth Ross recovers the experiences of everyday people who were inspired to pursue humanistic learning Physicians were often the most avid professionals seeking to earn the respect of their betters advance their families and secure honorable remembrance after death

Powerful Connections Peter William Shoemaker, 2007 Powerful Connections The Poetics of Patronage in the Age of Louis XIII explores the role of patronage in shaping French literary culture between 1614 and 1661 a period that witnessed both the rise of the early modern state under Richelieu and the beginnings of modern literary culture in the salons and academies It includes readings of texts by authors such as Jean Louis Guez de Balzac Theophile de Viau Charles Sorel and Pierre Corneille that reveal the personal side of political power and its impact upon literary practice

Renaissance Mass Murder Stephen D. Bowd, 2018-11-08 Renaissance Mass Murder explores the devastating impact of war on the men and women of the Renaissance In contrast to the picture of balance and harmony usually associated with the Renaissance it uncovers in forensic detail a world in which sacks of Italian cities and massacres of civilians at the hands of French German Spanish Swiss and Italian troops were regular occurrences The arguments presented are based on a wealth of evidence histories and chronicles poetry and paintings sculpture and other objects which together provide a new and startling history of sixteenth century Italy and a social history of the Italian Wars It outlines how massacres happened how princes soldiers lawyers and writers justified and explained such events and how they were represented in contemporary culture On this basis Renaissance Mass Murder reconstructs the terrifying individual experiences of civilians in the face of war and in doing so offers a story of human tragedy which redresses the balance of the history of the Italian Wars and of Renaissance warfare in favour of the civilian and away from the din of battle This volume also places mass murder in a broader historical context and challenges claims that such violence was unusual or in decline in early modern Europe Finally it shows that women often suffered disproportionately from this violence and that immunity for them as for their children was often partially developed or poorly respected

Acoustemologies in Contact Emily Wilbourne, Suzanne G. Cusick, 2021-01-19 In this fascinating collection of essays an international group of scholars explores the sonic consequences of transcultural contact in the early modern period They examine how cultural configurations of sound impacted communication comprehension and the categorisation of people Addressing questions of identity difference sound and subjectivity in global early modernity these authors share the conviction that the body itself is the most intimate of contact zones and that the culturally contingent systems by which sounds made sense could be foreign to early modern listeners and to present day scholars Drawing on a global range of archival evidence from New France and New Spain to the slave ships of the Middle Passage to China Europe and the Mediterranean court environment this collection challenges the privileged position of European acoustical practices within the discipline of global historical musicology The discussion of Black and non European experiences demonstrates how the production of the canon in the cosmopolitan centres of colonial empires was underpinned by processes of human exploitation and extraction of resources As such this text is a timely response to calls within the discipline to decolonise music history and to contextualise the canonical works of the European past This volume is accessible to a wide and interdisciplinary audience not only within musicology but also to those interested in early modern global history sound studies race and slavery

International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 2003 Netherlandish and Italian Female Portraiture in the Fifteenth Century Elisabetta Toreno, 2025-10-01 This book investigates the aesthetic and conceptual characteristics of fifteenth century female portraiture on panel Portraits of women increased substantially during this century They formed part of a material and a visual culture borne out of the rapid rise of an oligarchy from entrepreneurial activities that was especially advanced in the urbanised territories of Italy and Flanders For this reason the portraits in this book are by Netherlandish and

Italian painters They are simultaneously illustrative of the emancipation of the genre from its medieval idiom and of the responses to the matrix of patriarchy under which society was organised Patriarchy is an androcentric structure that places women in a paradoxical situation of legal and social disenfranchisement on the account of purported psychophysical inadequacy whilst making them the catalysts through arranged marriages for the success of the spheres of power which are controlled by men Thus these portraits are also a window into women s lives in this structure This book is the first systematic study of their sign system and of the feminine experience of seeing and being seen at the intersection of disciplines that include art history anthropology legal history philosophy The surprising results suggest new interpretations of form and function in female portraiture women s active role in the imaging process and the early instances of a pro women ideology

Gilson,Catherine Keen,2004 The nineteen essays in this volume cover a wide chronological span from the 1470s to the 1990s Their breadth of subject matter appropriately reflects the diversity of Dick Andrews s own research interests including as they do considerations of the interactions between author performer and public between text and performance and more broadly still between the written and the oral Common to the essays too is an interest in crossing traditional disciplinary boundaries such as music and literature architecture and theatre From Florence to the Mediterranean and Beyond Anthony Molho,2009 Programs and Events, Faculty List University of California, Los Angeles. Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies,2000 The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies ,2003 Journal of Mediterranean Studies ,2005 Emotions Au Coeur de la Ville (XIVe-XVIe Siecle) Elodie Lecuppre-Desjardin,Anne-Laure van Bruaene,2005 Whoever is curious about emotions and their expression in the Old Regime has to discover Johan Huizinga s works From his point of view even if it is a real challenge to comprehend the world of the mind and of the sentimental life historians of medieval and early modern societies cannot help themselves from examining character studies to reconcile daily life and historicity Anglo Saxon studies have proved since the beginning of the seventies that we can give historical meaning to fierce emotions like anger and fear to mental suffering characterized by tears and pain or even to the sudden feeling of aesthetic pleasure mystical ecstasy and delight all those emotions which put the breath of life into anonymous people crowded into our historical studies Outside the debates of psycho history our study views the topic of emotions from the angle of social construction and civilization s process The town reveals itself as an ideal context within which to articulate values mentalities customs and aesthetics From the marketplace to the court of justice from the procession route to the scaffold from the theatre stage to the scene of riots the town concentrates in its heart a public space where both delicate and strong emotions are repeatedly enacted The purpose of this book is to develop different approaches according to sphere events social categories social relations gender etc and thus to suggest a more precise analysis of emotion as a means of communication inside the town Three urban social spheres where divergent emotions were publicly expressed manipulated discussed and represented are put into focus that of the urban revolt that of the urban administration of justice and that of the staging of urban theatre and poetry This book includes contributions from Peter Arnade Marc Boone Stijn Bussels Vincent Challet Dirk Coigneau Elisabeth Crouzet Pavan Jeroen Deploige Jan Dumolyn Jelle Haemers Eve Marie Halba Elodie Lecuppre Desjardin Lauro Martines Mariann Naessens Walter Prevenier Bart Ramakers Laurent Smagghe Anne Laure Van Bruaene Jacqueline Van Leeuwen and Valerie Wilhite
