Service Learning Sally Berman, 2015-05-26 Service learning offers students the unique opportunity to learn both in the classroom and in the real world. This exciting teaching strategy detailed in Berman's second edition of Service Learning motivates students to learn content, information, processes, and skills while making authentic connections to their surrounding community. This valuable resource explains the benefits of service learning and provides a step-by-step guide for using the instructional model. It features nine service learning projects that are broken down into basic, intermediate, and advanced levels. Each project features strategies for aligning service and curricular goals, tips for involving students in decision making, guidelines for managing different phases of the project, activities that foster reflection and self-evaluation, tips for differentiating by tapping into multiple intelligences. In this single resource, teachers will find everything they need to successfully implement service learning projects, helping students gain deeper understandings of content while positively impacting their communities. Routledge Companion to Professional Awareness and Diversity in Planning Education Stephen Kofi Diko, Leah Marie Hollstein, Danilo Palazzo, 2023-04-21 The Routledge Companion to Professional Awareness and Diversity in Planning Education engenders a discourse on how urban planning as a discipline is being made attractive to children and youth as they consider their career preferences. It also provides a discourse around the diversity challenges facing the institutions for training urban planning professionals. This Companion is an impressive collection of initiatives, experiences, and lessons in helping children, youth, and the general public appreciate the importance of and the diversity challenge confronting the urban planning profession and education. It comprises empirical, experimental, and case study research on initiatives to address the professional awareness and diversity challenges in urban planning. It has uniquely assembled voices and experiences from countries in Africa, Asia, Europe, and North America. Contributors are educators, practitioners, and activists of urban planning, as well as policymakers in their respective countries. This Companion is intended as a resource for urban planning schools and departments, foundations, non-profit organizations, private sector organizations, public institutions, teachers, and alumni, among others, to learn and consciously drive efforts to increase planning education awareness among children, youth, and the general public.
