The First Person An Essay On Reference And Intentionality:

The First Person, an Essay on Reference and Intentionality Roderick M. Chisholm,1981 The First Person, an Essay on Reference and Intentionality Roderick M. Chisholm,1981 The First Person Roderick M. Chisholm,1981

The first person : an essay on reference and intentionality Roderick M. Chisholm,1981 Languages of Intentionality Paul S. MacDonald,2012-06-28 The first book to explore and bring together both Phenomenological and analytic empirical approaches to a central issue in our understanding of consciousness Roderick M. Chisholm R. Bogdan,2013-03-09 The aim of this series is to inform both professional philosophers and a larger readership of social and natural scientists methodologists mathematicians students teachers publishers etc about what is going on who s who and who does what in contemporary philosophy and logic PROFILES is designed to present the research activity and the results of already outstanding personalities and schools and of newly emerging ones in the various fields of philosophy and logic There are many Festschrift volumes dedicated to various philosophers There is the celebrated Library of Living Philosophers edited by P A Schilpp whose format influenced the present enterprise Still they can only cover very little of the contemporary philosophical scene Faced with a tremendous expansion of philosophical information and with an almost frightening division of labor and increasing specialization we need systematic and regular ways of keeping track of what happens in the profession PROFILES is intended to perform such a function Each volume is devoted to one or several philosophers whose views and results are presented and discussed The profiled philosopher s will summarize and review his their own work in the main fields of significant contribution This work will be discussed and evaluated by invited contributors Relevant historical and or biographical data an up to date bibliography with short abstracts of the most important works and whenever possible references to significant reviews and discussions will also be included Non-Propositional Intentionality Alex Grzankowski,Michelle Montague,2018-07-19 The mind is directed upon the world There are worldly things that we have beliefs about and things in the world we desire to have happen We find some things fearsome and others likable The puzzle of intentionality how it is that our minds make contact with the world is one of the oldest and most vexed issues facing philosophers Many contemporary philosophers and cognitive scientists have been attracted to the idea that our minds represent the world This book explores an important assumption about representation namely that when we represent things in the world we represent them as having properties and in this way our representations have propositional structure The contributors examine what the commitment to propositionalism amounts to illuminate why one might find the thesis attractive or unattractive and consider ways in which one might depart from propositionalism The hope is that this will lead towards a more complete understanding of how the mind and world are connected The Sartrean Mind Matthew C. Eshleman,Constance L. Mui,2020-01-24 Jean Paul Sartre was one of the most important philosophers of the twentieth century His influence extends beyond academic philosophy to areas as diverse as anti colonial movements youth culture literary criticism and artistic developments around the world Beginning with an introduction and biography of Jean Paul Sartre by Matthew C Eshleman 42 chapters by a team of international contributors cover all the major aspects of Sartre s thought in the following key areas Sartre s philosophical and historical context Sartre and phenomenology Sartre existentialism and ontology Sartre and ethics Sartre and political theory Aesthetics literature and biography Sartre s engagements with other thinkers The Sartrean Mind is the most comprehensive collection on Sartre published to date It is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy as well as for those in related disciplines where Sartre s work has continuing importance such as literature French studies and politics

Cognition, Content, and the a Priori Robert Hanna,2015 Robert Hanna works out a unified contemporary Kantian theory of rational human cognition and knowledge which develops new lines of thought in philosophy of perception Along the way he provides original accounts of intentionality sense perception and perceptual knowledge the analytic synthetic distinction the nature of logic and the a priori

The Philosophy of Roderick M. Chisholm Roderick M. Chisholm,1997 This text mixes Chisholm as a disseminator of others ideas with his own theories of knowledge and perception his defence of Cartesian dualism foundationalism his adverbial theory of sensory experience and his immanent agent causation as a solution to the problem of personal freedom

The Metaphysics of Theism and Modality Richard Brian Davis,2001 In this book Richard Brian Davis explores various attempts to solve the Dependence Problem the problem posed by the following question How can necessary truths stand to God in a one way relation of dependence when neither they nor God could have failed to exist Critics charge that this problem is insoluble Davis argues at length that the most powerful and promising contemporary solutions to this problem those offered by Linda Zagzebski Brian Leftow Thomas V Morris and William Mann are all fatally flawed In making his case Davis treats the reader to helpful and interesting discussions of counterpossibles broadly logical necessity identity statements as well as the divine attributes of sovereignty aseity and simplicity He concludes with what is perhaps the most forceful and sustained defense of the claim that necessary truths can stand to God in an asymmetrical relation of causal dependence

Canadian Philosophical Reviews ,2000 Heterocosmica Lubomír Doležel,1998 The universe of possible worlds is constantly expanding and diversifying thanks to the incessant world constructing activity of human minds and hands Literary fiction is probably the most active experimental laboratory of the world constructing enterprise from the author s Preface The standard contrast between fiction and reality notes Lubomr Dolezel obscures an array of problems that have beset philosophers and literary critics for centuries Commentators usually admit that fiction conveys some kind of truth the truth of the story of Faust for instance They acknowledge that fiction usually bears some kind of relation to reality for example the London of Dickens But both the status of the truth and the nature of the relationship have baffled frustrated or repelled a long line of thinkers In Heterocosmica Lubomr Dolezel offers nothing less than a complete theory of literary fiction based on the idea of possible worlds Beginning with a discussion of the extant semantics and pragmatics of fictionality by Leibniz Russell Frege Searle Auerbach and others he relates them to literature literary theory and narratology He also investigates theories of action intention and literary communication to develop a system of concepts that allows him to offer perceptive reinterpretations of a host of classical modern and postmodern fictional narratives from Defoe through Dickens Dostoevsky Huysmans Bely and Kafka to Hemingway Kundera Rhys Plenzdorf and Coetzee By careful attention to philosophical inquiry into possible worlds especially Saul Kripke s and Jaakko Hintikka s and through long familiarity with literary theory Dolezel brings us an unprecedented examination of the notion of fictional worlds This remarkable book sums up the life s work of one of the most serious original and balanced literary thinkers in North America Focusing on the fictional universes projected by literary texts and the discursive means of achieving fictional effects Lubomir Dolezel s Heterocosmica provides a general theory of literary meaning The result is a highly distinguished contribution to the field of literary theory Thomas Pavel Princeton University The Bookseller ,1981 Narratologies David Herman,1999 National Union Catalog ,1982 Includes entries for maps and atlases Propositions, Proper Names, and Indexicals Matthew Lee Davidson,2000
