

Homecoming

By Little Darcie Badger

The 3 big main traits that I think would describe Grace very well are educated, extrovert, and mature. Educated. I consider Grace an educated girl because she knew that she needed to stand up for her tribe and culture, so she took the matter in her own hands and decided to do something. She was able to have a chance to speak in front of the school about where she's from, all thanks to her friend Naomi and completed it without any problems. "My humanity is not up for debate. Xásteoyo." In other words, "my culture, traditions, and race are not to be argued about in a bad way. Thank you." Extrovert. Many people would say Grace is an introvert, but I think she's more of an extrovert. Grace was able to make new friends on the first day of school by being sociable and friendly to others and was also brave enough to express her feelings and thoughts to her school about where she's from and how her and her ancestors were all a part of the Lipan Apache tribe. Now that is a really impressive thing to do! Mature "The moment I left a place, I treated it's people like memories. Things of the past that gradually fade away until they might as well be faceless and nameless extras in the movie of my life." Mature is a big part of Grace because when she had to leave the people she loved behind, she decided not to be sad about it, and rather let it turn into special memories that will be kept with her forever. This explains how she's growing up and understanding that there are some things that she needs to give up on, but there are also new things to take in.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
