The Homesteader Oscar Micheaux, 1969 Autobiographical The Homesteader expands on and continues the life of a black pioneer first described in The Conquest In this incarnation Jean Baptiste is his name He has just purchased land in South Dakota when he meets his dream girl but to his mind marriage is impossible because she is white Willful but warm hearted refusing to act as if he has no power to shape events Baptiste cultivates his land and plans his future In the face of drought pestilence and foreclosure he turns to writing His first marriage to the daughter of a Chicago minister collapses in acrimony and high drama The circumstances that lead to its failure are a telling social commentary Always learning Baptiste demands respect and embodies the strengths of the pioneer the vision of the empire builder His story will impress and inspire in this cynical age without heroic models
