The Match:

The Match Girl and the Heiress Seth Koven, 2016-04-19 How two extraordinary women crossed the Victorian class divide to put Christian teachings into practice in the slums of East London Nellie Dowell was a match factory girl in Victorian London who spent her early years consigned to orphanages and hospitals Muriel Lester the daughter of a wealthy shipbuilder longed to be free of the burden of money and possessions Together these unlikely soulmates sought to remake the world according to their own utopian vision of Christ's teachings The Match Girl and the Heiress paints an unforgettable portrait of their late nineteenth century girlhoods of wealth and want and their daring twentieth century experiments in ethical living in a world torn apart by war imperialism and industrial capitalism In this captivating book Seth Koven chronicles how each traveled the globe Nellie as a spinster proletarian laborer Muriel as a well heeled tourist and revered Christian peacemaker anticolonial activist and humanitarian Koven vividly describes how their lives crossed in the slums of East London where they inaugurated a grassroots revolution that took the Sermon on the Mount as a guide to achieving economic and social justice for the dispossessed Koven shows how they devoted themselves to Kingsley Hall Gandhi's London home in 1931 and Britain's first people's house founded on the Christian principles of social sharing pacifism and reconciliation and sheds light on the intimacies and inequalities of their loving yet complicated relationship The Match Girl and the Heiress probes the inner lives of these two extraordinary women against the panoramic backdrop of shop floor labor politics global capitalism counterculture spirituality and pacifist feminism to expose the wounds of poverty and neglect that Christian love could never heal
