Trouble For Kevin

Sue Rendall, Morag Stuart

Trouble For Kevin:

Trouble for Kevin Hannah Cole, Maureen Bradley, 1992 While his father is away and his mother is in hospital Kevin is sent to live with a family he hardly knows Suggested level junior Excluded From School Sue Rendall, Morag Stuart, 2012-12-06 Excluded From School exposes the reasons why despite many national and local initiatives large numbers of children continue to tax the education system to such a degree that they become permanently excluded from school Sue Rendall and Morag Stuart draw on their experience in psychology and education to demonstrate the need for a more thorough exploration of the underlying root causes of the problem Based on a systemic framework their approach allows the inclusion of a vast range of possible contributory factors within the child within the family within the school and within the complex interrelations between these three systems By demonstrating the need for inter discipline and inter agency collaboration the authors succeed in presenting a persuasive challenge to the blame culture which exists between schools parents and educational professionals and policymakers in relation to school exclusion The original research presented here along with the inclusion of the experiences of children parents and teachers provides a valuable new perspective on the problem of school exclusions that will be welcomed by all professionals working in this field Clybourne Park Bruce Norris, 2012 Clybourne Park spans two generations fifty years apart In 1959 Russ and Bev are selling their desirable two bedroom at a bargain price unknowingly bringing the first black family into the neighborhood borrowing a plot line from Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun and creating ripples of discontent among the cozy white residents of Clybourne Park In 2009 the same property is being bought by a young white couple whose plan to raze the house and start again is met with equal disapproval by the black residents of the soon to be gentrified area Are the issues festering beneath the floorboards actually the same fifty years on Bruce Norris's excruciatingly funny and squirm inducing satire explores the fault line between race and property Clybourne Park is the winner of the 2011 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the winner of the 2012 Tony Award for Best Play Reimagining A Raisin in the Sun Rebecca Ann Rugg, Harvey Young, 2012-04-15 This book is a collection of four contemporary plays that reflect the themes of racial and cultural difference of Lorraine Hansberry's 1959 play A Raisin in the Sun Straight Up! Michael Davis, 2013-01-05 Life isn't easy especially for young men growing up without a role model that offers encouragement and direction Most of these young men never find a safe place to go for straight answers that will help them find the direction and courage to be the man they want to become Straight Up! is filled with sound fatherly advice for a fatherless generation It's the kind of candid sometimes in your face straight talk that will help readers not just to get by in life but get ahead This book contains short simple truths that if embraced and applied can change lives Written by a man who understands the pressures young men face today Michael Davis challenges young men everywhere to step up and live a life that matters and make a difference in the world The One Year Book of Devotions for Boys, 2002-10 Presents stories for meditation memory verses from Scripture and questions to internalize the messages for each day of the year
