What Freedom The Persistent Challenge Of:

Quests for Freedom, Second Edition Michael Welker, 2019-04-02 This book is the result of intensive multiyear international and interdisciplinary cooperation From many perspectives the book's contributors address themes of freedom and slavery self determination and concepts of freedom God given and imprinted freedom freedom as an ethos of belonging and solidarity and relations between freedom human rights and theological orientation With contributions from Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza Ron Soodalter Manfred Oeming Katharina von Kellenbach Rudiger Bittner Peter Lampe Cyril Hovorun Risto Saarinen Friederike Nussel Larry W Hurtado Patrick D Miller Beverly Roberts Gaventa Hans Joachim Eckstein Dirk J Smit Jan Christian Gertz Jurgen van Oorschot Jind ich Halama Carver T Yu Susan Abraham Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Simone Weil Vivienne Blackburn, 2004 The book is the first major study to bring together the two early twentieth century theologians Dietrich Bonhoeffer German Lutheran pastor and Simone Weil French philosopher and convert to Christianity Both were victims of Nazi oppression and neither survived the war The book explores the two theologians reflections on Christian responsiveness to God and neighbour being the interdependence of the two great commandments of the Jewish Law reiterated by Jesus It sets out the common ground and the differing emphases in their interpretations For Bonhoeffer responsiveness was the transformation of the whole person effected by faith Gestaltung and the responsibility Verantwortung for one's actions which it implies For Weil responsive ness was the hope and expectation of grace attente reflected in attention the capacity to listen to understand and help others Both Bonhoeffer and Weil faced a world dominated by aggression and horrendous suffering Both endeavoured to articulate their responses as Christians to that world The relevance of their thought to the twenty first century is explored in relation to perspectives on grace and freedom on aggression suffering and forgiveness and on the role of the church in society Conclusions are illustrated by reference to contemporary theologians including Rowan Williams Daniel Hardy Frances Young and David Tracy Learning to Speak Keith W. Clements, 2011-06-13 Churches and ecumenical bodies are often criticized for saying too much or too little on social and political affairs But how can churches speak out on such affairs How can churches participate effectively Keith Clements questions the present preoccupation with making statements which not only presupposes that a church has ready made answers but is also symptomatic of modern Western society's obsession with publicity and instant solutions to what are often complex problems Clements examines such historically famous statements as the German Barmen Declaration of 1934 and the South African Kairos Document of 1985 before exploring the biblical and theological roots of the key motifs of prophecy and discipleship He suggests that Western churches must continue to listen and learn not least from the way churches in regions such as South Africa the Middle East and Eastern Europe are relearning their roles Clements concludes that Western churches must be prepared to talk modestly They must be prepared to be both more disciplined and more imaginative They must also be prepared to be more theological Drawing on a wide range of sources Catholic and Protestant contemporary and historical Clements points the way forward for a Christian community learning to speak in the world and to the world

Unconscious Christianity in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Late Theology Eleanor McLaughlin, 2020-03-27 In the last years of his life Dietrich Bonhoeffer began work on an idea that he called unbewusstes Christentum unconscious Christianity While Bonhoeffer's other ideas from this period have been extensively studied and are important in the field of theology and beyond this idea has been almost completely ignored For the first time in Bonhoeffer scholarship Eleanor McLaughlin provides a definition of unconscious Christianity based on a close reading and analysis of the texts in which Bonhoeffer mentioned the term From a variety of surviving texts from a scribbled marginal note in his Ethics manuscript to the fiction he wrote in prison she constructs a detailed definition of unconscious Christianity that sheds light not only on Bonhoeffer's late work but his theological development as a whole
