Excerpt from Structure and Function in Primitive Society Essays and Addresses An examination of the essays in this volume will suggest that his writings have been just as influential as his personal contacts He has not been considering that he has been engaged in teaching and research in social anthropology for almost fifty years written as much as most persons of his academic eminence What he has written however has been faultless We do not mean by this that we necessarily accept his methods or conclusions in detail but rather that the point of view he expresses could not have been better expressed Each of the essays is perfect in conception and in expression and they are tied together by a consistency and direction which is rare in modern anthropology
