what a great orator affirmed of oratory Action action action As soon as one point is gained another and another presents itself It is a mistake says Samuel Smiles to suppose that men succeed through success they much oftener succeed through failure He cites among others the example of Cowper who through his diffidence and shyness broke down when pleading his first cause and lived to revive the poetic art in England and that of Goldsmith who failed in passing as a surgeon and yet wrote the Deserted Village and the Vicar of Wakefield Even when one turns to no new course how many failures as a rule mark the way to triumph and brand into life as with a hot iron the lessons of defeat *Struggles and Triumphs: Or, Forty Years' Recollections of P.
