The First Christians Enzo Bellini, 1980 The first Christians The Church established The end of the ancient world The formation of Christian Europe The Middle Ages The Church in the age of Humanism Protestant and Catholic Reform The Church in Revolutionary times etc A History of the First Christians Alexander J. M. Wedderburn, 2004-01-01 This work provides a survey of the history of the earliest Christian church in the period up to the fall of Jerusalem It concentrates on the figure of Paul judicious and critical use of information in the Book of Acts Judaizing versions of Christianity and the Johannine tradition The approach steers a middle way between an over simplified account which fails to warn students where scholarly opinion is divided and an in depth academic study which attempts to document and discuss every hypothesis Wedderburn focuses on aspects of central importance the changing shape of church life and developing Christianity in relation to the Roman Empire and to Judaism This book seeks to draw together and make more readily accessible many new insights gained from an enormous range of recent scholarly studies in German and English and places them in the context of a more general account

Making Sense in (and Of) the First Christian Century Francis Gerald Downing, 2000-08-01 The first Christian century must be approached with careful attention to its cultural and linguistic heterogeneity It should not simply be assumed that this past is a different place they do things differently there Downing treats the ways in which early Christians tried to make things make sense within their cultures noting both the similarities and differences between their ways and contemporary ones and stressing the variety of contexts and influences on first century communication Downing brings his renowned expertise to bear in illuminating the cultural features of early Christian society with a range of fascinating and telling examples

The First Christians Marigold Hunt, 2004-03 Women and Religion in the First Christian Centuries Deborah F. Sawyer, 1996 Too often the religious traditions of antiquity are studied in isolation without any real consideration of how they interacted What made someone with a free choice become an adherent of one faith rather than another Why might a former pagan choose to become a God fearer and attend synagogue services Why might a Jew become a Christian How did the mysteries of Mithras differ from the worship of the Unconquered Sun or the status of the Virgin Mary from that of Isis and how many gods could an ancient worshipper have These questions are hard to answer without a synoptic view of what the different religions offered

The Faith and the Power : the Inspiring Story of the First Christians & how They Survived the Madness of Rome James D. Snyder,2002

New insights unearthed How the early Jewish Christians coped after the crucifixion of Jesus why Nero tried to purge them why the emperor s insatiable greed for money forced Jerusalem into a ruinous civil war and how the first Christians emerged with a new vitality that would one day sweep away Rome s profusion of pagan gods and temples The Bible offers sketchy answers to these and many more questions But when integrated with the perspective of early Jewish Roman and Christian writers the result is a chronological three dimensional documentary that both explains and enriches the Book of Acts and other New Testament writings The most complete account to date of the turbulent traumatic first century that laid the groundwork for Western Civilization for the next two millennia
