The Tan Chanteuse:

The Tan Chanteuse Carole Boston Weatherford, 1995-10 Somebody's Knocking at Your Door Harold G Koenig, Carole B Weatherford, Ronald J Weatherford, 2013-10-08 Examining the black church's response to AIDS Somebody's Knocking at Your Door AIDS and the African American Church analyzes sexual ethics and homophobia in the black church to provide pastors social workers and health professionals with intervention strategies for parishioners or members of the community who have AIDS By discussing the church's historic and successful activism and its relationship to the community along with AIDS statistics relevant theologies and other AIDS ministries this book suggests the benefits of increased church involvement versus other agencies or organizations Somebody's Knocking at Your Door will help you develop prevention education and pastoral care programs that will alert individuals to the risks of AIDS and will offer people with AIDS the comfort and assistance they need in coping with the disease Through the voices of leading clergy AIDS advocates and people living with AIDS PLWAs this book calls on the African American church to become more involved in helping communities deal with the disease Somebody's Knocking at Your Door offers you ideas on how to improve the lives of individuals with AIDS through the church including welcoming PLWAs into the church through announcements by local media church newsletters and Sunday bulletins offering AIDS support groups at the church or loaning office space equipment or clerical assistance to AIDS organizations recognizing the power of intercessory prayer for PLWAs caring for PLWAs by delivering meals to their homes preparing meals at the church and developing a transportation network that will take parishioners to doctor appointments church or on recreational outings preparing meals running errands housekeeping handling paperwork negotiating legal issues and offering friendship possible components of volunteer buddy programs for homebound PLWAs training pastors clergy and Sunday school teachers to educate ministries on AIDS in the African American community sexual intimacy intravenous drug use and needle sharing monogamy community resources and condom use Since some clergy still believe that AIDS is a gay disease Somebody's Knocking at Your Door discusses the issue of homosexuality within the church By analyzing passages from the Bible the authors refute the belief that homosexuals were neglected by God and undeserving of care and love This belief according to the authors inhibits some churches and individuals from discussing HIV AIDS because of fear they would also be acknowledging homosexuality Highlighting AIDS ministries throughout the United States Somebody's Knocking at Your Door encourages the African American church to confront the issue of AIDS and understand that the disease can affect anyone This book will give you the necessary strategies for starting and implementing AIDS ministries and intervention programs that will educate and support your community A Fierce Brightness Margarita Donnelly, Beverly McFarland, Micki Reaman, 2002 This dazzling collection presents some of the most important women poets of the past 25 years Beyond the Frontier E. Ethelbert Miller, 2002 This anthology begins with the memory of landscapes and landmarks presenting poems in the For My People tradition of Margaret Walker It includes a section titled Blood and

Disappointment in the Land which documents ongoing social struggles Other poems focus on the love that is essential for survival rebirth and dreams More than 100 prominent African American poets contribute including the distinguished and award winning poets Toi Derricotte Sam Cornish Jabari Asim and Pinkie Gordon Lane East Indian Music in the West Indies Peter Lamarche Manuel, Trinidadian sitarist composer and music authority Mangal Patasar once remarked and tan singing You take a capsule from India leave it here for a hundred years and this is what you get Patasar was referring to what may be the most sophisticated and distinctive art form cultivated among the one and a half million East Indians whose ancestors migrated as indentured laborers from colonial India to the West Indies between 1845 and 1917 Known in Trinidad and Guyana as tan singing or local classical music and in Suriname as baithak gana sitting music tan singing has evolved in to a unique idiom embodying the rich poetic and musical heritage brought from India as modified by a diaspora group largely cut off from its ancestral homeland In recent decades however tan singing has been declining regarded as quaint and crude by younger generations raised on MTV Hindi film music and disco At the same time Indo Caribbeans have been participating in their countries economic political and cultural lives to a far greater extent than previously Accompanying this participation has been a lively cultural revival encompassing both an enhanced assertion of Indianness and a spirit of innovative syncretism One of the most well known products of this process is chutney a dynamic music and dance phenomenon that is simultaneously a folk revival and a pop hybrid In Trinidad it has also been the vehicle for a controversial form of female empowerment and an agent of a new more inclusive conception of national identity Thus East Indian Music in the West Indies is a portrait of a diaspora community in motion It documents the social and cultural development of a people without history a people who have sometimes been dismissed as foreigners who merely perpetuate the culture of the homeland rather than becoming truly Caribbean Professor Manuel shows how inaccurate this characterization is On the one hand in the form of tan singing it examines the distinctiveness of traditional Indo Caribbean musical culture On the other in the form of chutney it examines the new assertiveness and syncretism of Indo Caribbean popular music Students of Indo Caribbean music and curious world music fans alike will be fascinated by Professor Manuel s guided tour through the complex and exciting world of Indo Caribbean musical culture The Carolina Parakeet Carole Boston Weatherford, 2005 Music in Latin America and the Caribbean: An Encyclopedic History REANNOUNCE/F05: Volume 2: Performing the Caribbean Experience Kuss, Malena, The music of the peoples of South and Central America Mexico and the Caribbean is treated with unprecedented breadth in this multi volume work Taking a sociocultural and human centered approach Music in Latin America and the Caribbean gathers the best scholarship from writers all over the world to cover in depth the musical legacies of indigenous peoples creoles African descendants Iberian colonizers and other immigrant groups that met and mixed in the New World From these texts music emerges as the powerful tool that negotiates identities enacts resistance performs beliefs and challenges received aesthetics More than two decades in the making this work privileges the perspectives of cultural insiders and emphasizes the role that music plays in human life Volume 2 Performing the Caribbean Experience focuses on the reconfiguration of this complex soundscape after the Conquest and on the strategies by which groups from distant worlds reconstructed traditions assigning new meanings to fragments of memory and welding a fascinating variety of unique Creole cultures Shaped by an enduring African presence and the experience of slavery and colonization by the Spanish French British and Dutch peoples of the Caribbean islands and circum Caribbean territories resorted to the power of music to mirror their history assert identity gain freedom and transcend their experience in lasting musical messages Essays on pan Caribbean themes surveys of traditions and riveting personal accounts capture the essence of pluralistic and spiritualized brands of creativity through the voices of an unprecedented number of Caribbean authors including a representative contingent of distinguished Cuban scholars whose work is being published in English translation for the first time in this book Two CDs with 52 recorded examples illustrate the contributions to this volume
