Killing as Punishment Hugo Adam Bedau, 2004-03-11 Hugo Bedau has commanded a long and distinguished career as one of the most widely respected opponents of capital punishment. His work has addressed a variety of perspectives in the death penalty debate from execution of the innocent to the philosophical and moral grounds for abolition. Now his essays from the last fifteen years appear together in one volume. More than simply a collection of previously published articles, Killing as Punishment represents a unified interdisciplinary inquiry into several of the major empirical and normative issues raised by the death penalty. The essays have been revised and updated to survey the current state of the death penalty against the background of the past half century and are divided along two major axes: one detailing a range of facts raised by the controversy over capital punishment, the other presenting a critical evaluation of the subject from a constitutional and ethical point of view. Drawing on his encyclopedic knowledge of the field, Bedau addresses topics that include strong public support for the death penalty, wrongful convictions in capital cases, the disappearance of executive clemency, constitutional arguments surrounding t

Research Handbook on the Punishment of Atrocity Crimes Róisín Mulgrew, Mikkel J. Christensen, 2024-11-08 This Research Handbook examines the punishment of atrocity crime and presents a wide-ranging critique of post-conviction law, policy, and practice. With a team of expert contributing authors, Róisín Mulgrew and Mikkel Jarle Christensen provide insights into the impact and implications of punishment models, strategies, and frameworks.

The Death Penalty in the United States Louis J. Palmer, Jr., 2013-10-23 The death penalty landscape has changed considerably since the 1998 first edition of this book. For example, six states that had the death penalty—Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, New Mexico, and New York—no longer impose the punishment. Some of the changes set out in this second edition involve discussions of all of the significant cases decided by the United States Supreme Court after 1998, including Roper v Simmons 543 U.S. 551 (2005), Atkins v Virginia 536 U.S. 304 (2002), Schiro v Smith 126 S.Ct. 7 (2005), Harbison v Bell 129 S.Ct. 1481 (2009), Holmes v South Carolina 126 S.Ct. 1727 (2006), Kansas v Marsh 126 S.Ct. 2516 (2006), Ring v Arizona 536 U.S. 584 (2002), Sattazahn v Pennsylvania 537 U.S. 101 (2003). This new edition includes 13 new chapters. They cover such topics as capital felon's defense team, habeas corpus coram nobis, and section 1983 proceedings, the Innocence Protection Act, and post-conviction DNA testing, challenging the death sentence under racial justice acts, inhabited American territories, and the costs of capital punishment.

Death Penalties Raoul Berger, 2000-02 Does the Supreme Court have the authority to deprive the people of the right to govern themselves? Marshaling a convincing array of historical sources, Raoul Berger demonstrates that the Framers withheld such power from the Court and that its death penalty decisions unconstitutionally impose the Justices' morals upon an unwilling people. The Slow Death of the Death Penalty Todd C. Peppers, Jamie Almellen, Mary Welek Atwell, 2025-07-01 Why the death penalty is in decline across the United States. Across the country the death penalty is dying Twenty two states have abandoned state sanctioned executions including nine in the last fifteen years Of the twenty eight states that still have the death penalty eight have not had an execution in over a decade And public support for the death penalty has declined from 80% of the surveyed population in the early 1990s to approximately 50% today As the death penalty slowly withers away Todd C Peppers Jamie Almellen and Mary Welek Atwell bring together a number of distinguished death penalty scholars activists and attorneys to take an accounting of the damage inflicted by the machinery of death Contributors to the book point to a range of different pathologies which have caused politicians and voters to turn against capital punishment from unacceptable rates of false convictions and racially motivated prosecutions to a clemency process poisoned by political factors Essay topics include various dimensions of the death penalty including racial and gender bias economic costs the conviction of juveniles the mentally ill and the factually innocent Supreme Court decisions and the failure of the death penalty to serve as a deterrent against crime This important volume is an up to date accounting of the current state and as the contributors argue the future demise of the death penalty
