The Success Myth Emma Gannon, 2023-05-18 Highly comforting Alain de Botton Founder of The School of Life This book changed how I think Annie Macmanus author of The Mess We're In You will not be able to put this book down The Independent OUR OBSESSION WITH ACHIEVEMENT IS A TRAP THIS IS HOW TO BREAK FREE Emma Gannon was thriving in her portfolio career enjoying a happy personal life and to anyone looking in she was undoubtedly a success She was also burned out and confused at why she felt unhappy yet was still striving for more After taking a deep look at her own journey and interviewing many other successful people on her podcast Ctrl Alt Delete she realised that our overly celebrated and traditional version of success is making us lonely unfulfilled and dispirited Now she has worked out a way to do things differently and here Emma shares her hard won lessons including how to set goals that are ambitious but not overwhelming why the tick box moments in life often feel anticlimactic and how to break free from comparison and the endless pursuit of more A manifesto to craft work and life on your own terms The Success Myth will give you the belief and tools to walk away from having it all uncovering your individual path to fulfilment Success on the Spectrum Emily Wiskera,Anna

Smith,Tina Sue Fletcher,Lynda Wilbur,Francis Yong Chen,2024-01-04 The role of arts and cultural institutions is changing Once viewed as stewards of objects institutions are increasingly upheld as stewards of people spaces where the diversity of human experience is asserted explored and celebrated As such they function as public resources and should be equally accessible to all members of diverse communities Individuals with autism spectrum disorder account for a significant portion of the community Advocates are working to shift attitudes and nomenclature with terms such as neurodiversity and sensory friendly becoming more commonplace With this cultural institutions are putting effort into creating tailored programs and resources to welcome neurodiverse visitors who have historically been excluded from these spaces Despite their desire to connect many cultural workers fear they lack the expertise or resources needed to effectively create inclusive spaces and experiences This book s content is presented by museum educators arts administrators occupational therapists and school psychologists contributors with different expertise and perspectives on the stakes of cultural arts experiences for neurodiverse visitors We offer advice based on what has worked for us and share the sometimes difficult lessons learned along the way However this advice comes with the caution there is no one size fits all solution To be truly successful arts and cultural institutions must respond to their unique community and work within the resources and limitations of their institution Our practical goals for the reader are threefold To understand the value of programming for neurodiverse visitors and effectively communicate this to others To build a toolkit of strategies and resources for neurodiverse visitors to have successful visits to cultural institutions no matter the staff size budget or current stages of accessibility To develop evaluation strategies to gauge the impact of offerings for neurodiverse visitors with results that help the reader improve grow and refine for the future Architects of fate, or, Steps to success and power Orison Swett Marden,1896 Successful Contract
