Threads Of Labour:

Threads of labour Lisa Taylor, 2025-07-01 Charting a collaborative art based project using carpet making skills and the industrial heritage of the region the book investigates how a cleaved ex industrial community used arts methodologies as a cohesion strategy Drawing on images from the company s archives the book mines the history of Firths Carpets Limited a firm that carpeted interiors across the globe from the mid 1800s Women s labour and tastes were business critical to the production and sale of Firths carpets Drawing on the author s personal connection to the village an ethnographic sensibility and novel research techniques ex worker responses to a village radically altered by ruination are explored Ex workers felt nostalgia for the dignity of work and a sense of homesickness in a village ghosted by industrial spectres of the past Threads of Labour argues that left behind deindustrialised places require acts of social re making if their communities are to survive

Threads of Labour Angela Hale, Jane Wills, 2011-07-20 Threads of Labour presents new empirical research by a network of garment workers support organizations and makes sense of global supply chains from the bottom up Presents new empirical research by a network of garment workers support organizations in ten different locations in Asia Europe and Mexico Creates a blueprint for conducting worker orientated action research in order to better understand and resist the negative impact of globalization on labour Ensures that workers voices reach those who are already trying to reconfigure global capitalism in more humane directions Explores the ways in which workers might begin to develop new forms of organization that are more suited to securing gains in the global garment industry Bridges the gap between activist and academic research improving the conversation between these two groups Threads of Dependence John C. Grech, 1978

Small Town Capitalism in Western India Douglas E. Haynes, 2012-03-12 This book charts the history of artisan production and marketing in the Bombay Presidency from 1870 to 1960 While the textile mills of western India s biggest cities have been the subject of many rich studies the role of artisan producers located in the region s small towns have been virtually ignored Based upon extensive archival research as well as numerous interviews with participants in the handloom and powerloom industries this book explores the role of weavers merchants consumers and laborers in the making of what the author calls small town capitalism By focusing on the politics of negotiation and resistance in local workshops the book challenges conventional narratives of industrial change The book provides the first in depth work on the origins of powerloom manufacture in South Asia It affords unique insights into the social and economic experience of small town artisans as well as the informal economy of late colonial and early post independence India Silk China.
