the state or other partisans It doesn't tell the whole story Drawing on a trove of less well known sources including family histories folk stories memoirs sermons and especially the fascinating writings from the Afro Protestant Press Til Death or Distance Do Us Part offers a radically different perspective on antebellum love and family life Frances Smith Foster applies the knowledge she's developed over a lifetime of reading and thinking Advocating both the potency of skepticism and the importance of story telling her book shows the way toward a more genuine more affirmative understanding of African American romance both then and now
