Twenty Third Man:

The Twenty-third Man Gladys Mitchell,1961 Stonewall Jackson at Cedar Mountain Robert K. Krick,2002-02-01
At Cedar Mountain on August 9 1862 Stonewall Jackson exercised independent command of a campaign for the last time Robert Krick untangles the myriad original accounts by participants on both sides of the battle to offer an illuminating portrait of the C My First 1,000 Jumps Norm Heaton,2019-06-10 You are holding the only comprehensive history of the early days of the sport of skydiving yet published It is the story of not just one skydiver but the story of many the true pioneers of the sport Just as important this book includes a complete history of the national organization established for the express purpose of promoting sport parachuting While this history is restricted to a short fifteen years 1961 1975 those years were the most productive most far reaching and the most exciting for the fledgling idea of jumping out of perfectly good airplanes for the sheer joy of it all eventually establishing the sport of skydiving as an integral part of the world of aviation sports This book tells the story of those formative years with details of battles fought to maintain freedom of the skies for all parachutists when government and corporate interests made numerous attempts to severely restrict the right of skydivers to use our nation s airspace This story is told by a man who dedicated his life to the advancement of the sport serving for twelve years as the chief executive officer of the national organization for skydivers the Parachute Club of America US Parachute Association The reader will embark on a most exciting journey a journey not told before continually laced with personal stories that will touch your heart make you smile and occasionally make you laugh This book contains over 400 photographs and 1 500 names of people from around the world who participated in that wonderful and exhilarating sport called skydiving
