Prager, 2001 19 Urban Questions Joe L. Kincheloe, Shirley R. Steinberg, 2004 Annotation 19 Urban Questions Teaching in the City the definitive overview of urban education is provocative in style and rich in detail Emphasizing the complexity of urban education Steinberg Kincheloe and the authors ask direct questions about what urban teachers need to know Their answers are guaranteed to generate both classroom discussion and discourse in the field for years to come This is a volume that should be used in every school of education Important topics include difference in urban education motives for teaching in city settings understanding and dealing with drop outs the role of counseling in urban schools identifying resistance in urban settings gangs and gang membership evaluation and assessment unique issues relating to disabilities bilingual education unique issues in urban literacy urban students and the writing process technology in urban classrooms the value of teaching science in urban settings the role of aesthetics in city schools health risks among city students understanding the urban family Improving Literacy Achievement in Urban

Schools Louise Cherry Wilkinson, Lesley Mandel Morrow, Victoria Chou, 2008 All students deserve the opportunity to reach their full literacy potential yet research shows that the numerous challenges faced by today's urban schools prevent many students from achieving this goal Therefore preparing teachers to effectively teach reading in diverse urban populations in ways that students find engaging and relevant must be a top priority of teacher education programs Urban Education Joe L. Kincheloe, 2007-08-24 Maintaining that urban teaching and learning is characterized by numerous contradictions this book proposes that there is a wide range of social cultural psychological and pedagogical knowledge that urban educators must possess in order to engage in effective and transformative practice It is necessary for teachers in urban schools to be scholar practitioners as opposed to bureaucrats who only follow rather than analyze understand and create Ten major sections cover the myriad issues of urban education as it exists today context of urban education race and ethnicity social justice teaching and pedagogy power and urban education language issues cultural issues of urban schools as seen in the media research in city schools aesthetics and the proximity of cultural institutions and education policy Sixty one essays written by specialists in teacher education public policy sociology psychology applied linguistics forestry urban studies school administration cultural studies evaluation and linguistics provide a blueprint for scholars teachers parents urban politicians school administrators policy professionals and others seeking to understand the situation of urban schools across America today

Partnering to Prepare Urban Teachers American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, 2008 This book attempts to present both theoretical and practical perspectives on school and university partnerships that focus on the preparation and retention of urban teachers In particular the book focuses on a theoretical and historical underpinnings of partnering to prepare urban teachers as social activists b stories from the field explored through the voices and actions of students families teacher educators and preservice and in service teachers and c a critical analysis of this work The research presented is situated in urban settings that mirror those across the United States and represents partnerships in Boston Chicago Cleveland Los Angeles and Wilmington where school city and teacher education communities collaborate to prepare and keep teachers in hard to staff high needs schools Case studies included in the text explore multiple perspectives on partnering to prepare urban teachers including those of urban schoolchildren and their teachers teacher educators and teachers becoming teacher educators and parents Combined the chapters theoretically and practically detail the layers and conundrums tribulations and triumphs contexts and voices of the challenges facing urban teachers teacher educators community members and administrators who work collaboratively to prepare and support teachers as social activists

ENC Focus ,1994 Introduction to Teaching Donald Kauchak, Paul D. Eggen, 2008 Accompanying DVD ROM contains videos of teachers and students in their classrooms and videos bringing to life current and controversial educational issues Feeding the Children ,2006 Multi-leadership in Urban Schools Judy A. Alston, 2002-10-02 K 12 educational leadership literature highlights the need for co leadership as it relates to school administrative effectiveness

While co leadership in the principalship is not a new idea it is a shift in thinking from the traditional model of one principal as school administrator Multi leadership in Urban Schools proposes a model for school administrative leadership through collective administrative responsibility With three distinct people doing three distinct jobs while jointly collaborating in a model of leadership each can contribute to the creation of a community of learning to improve delivery of instruction and maximize student opportunity for academic excellence This text used in educational leadership preparation programs and in urban school districts efforts for reform can re conceptualize urban school leadership influencing effective leadership and contributing to student academic achievement

Urban Schools Mickey Lauria,Luis F. Mirón,2005 Urban Schools documents the quality of resistance and identity politics in relation to both the formal and hidden curricula of urban schools their pedagogical practices and their administrative norms and policies Building on the notion that the study of marginality is equally as important as an understanding of the school s structural connections to the wider society Mickey Lauria and Luis F Mir n demonstrate how resistance is much more than a random series of psychological events Indeed within the social context of the formation of racial and ethnic identity in schools in New Orleans Louisiana students acts of resistance alter the ideological structures of schooling English Journal ,2002

Diversity and the New Teacher Catherine Cornbleth,2008-07-25 In this extraordinary volume veteran teacher educator and internationally respected scholar Catherine Cornbleth examines one of the most challenging issues for new teachers how to effectively teach a diverse student population Cornbleth weaves the voices and experiences of student teachers from urban elementary and high schools into her own analysis She invites new and prospective teachers especially white teachers from middle class homes to draw on these experiences to explore working more constructively with students different from themselves and to succeed in schools different than their own She also speaks to teacher educators about their role in preparing new teachers to face increasing diversity in public schools Featuring vignettes and interviews this book Offers in depth descriptions of the issues white student teachers confront as they teach in urban settings Provides insight and advice to help strengthen relationships between racially socioeconomically and culturally dissimilar students and teachers Examines the successes and failures teachers experience when engaging diverse groups of students in meaningful academic learning
