Absolutely Bleeding Green David Headon,2019-11-05 There is no team that gives pleasure to the sporting public like the Canberra Raiders Bob Hawke former Prime Minister of Australia The Canberra Raiders spectacular grand final win against the Balmain Tigers in 1989 is widely regarded as Australian Rugby League s greatest ever decider For a fledgling club this was an extraordinary and unexpected achievement heralding a sequence of years that produced two more premierships and two near misses The Raiders trademark adventurous style of play was welcomed by all lovers of the game Attacking football was back in vogue David Headon tells the story of a unique football team that entered the Sydney competition in 1982 with little fanfare and plenty of pessimism despite the fact that league had been an integral part of communities across the Limestone Plains for nearly a century From this firm base the Raiders emerged to make their mark Absolutely Bleeding Green recounts the big wins and heart wrenching losses as it follows the players through their Raider careers revealing how the club was able to build exceptional team spirit even in difficult times It includes interviews with players past and present with coaches and administrators as well as with families and supporters who are so proud of the distinctive lime green jersey This terrific book tells the story of a unique club that changed my life forever just as the Raiders changed Rugby League forever Mal Meninga Rugby League Immortal Canberra Raiders Hall of Fame Dave Headon s history of the Canberra Raiders explores the club s origins why it was able to defy the odds and be so successful so quickly and how it fought its way through more troubled times In the process of the highs and lows a special culture of camaraderie was created The Raiders family has a big story and for me it s personal I m honoured to be a part of it Ricky Stuart Rugby League Legend Canberra Raiders Hall of Fame Tales of the convict system.
