War Walk:

The War Walk Nigel H. Jones, 2003-04-01 Nigel Jones felt that a fresh look at the battlegrounds of the First World War was necessary As a personal pilgrimage to honour the memory of an uncle who was killed at Ypres aged 18 he walked the front line of that cataclysmic conflict and his 400 mile journey along the trenches is a tribute to all the combatants of both sides The War Walk is a moving book describing the journey and it is written on several levels It incisively retells the political and military story of the Western Front it explores the reality of life and death in the trenches through the words of a number of veterans from both sides and it gives a vivid picture of the Western Front as it is today The battles of Loos Ypres the Somme and Passchendale are re fought from first hand accounts uncovering all the artefacts of war the trenches the craters the rusty shells and grenades the boots and even the bones which are still to be found there This new edition has a new Introduction by the author and it will appeal to all who have visited the Western Front plan to do so or who wish to explore the terrain from the comfort of their armchairs

Long Walk Through War Klaus H. Huebner, 1987 The 344 days of combat of the 88th Infantry Division were part of the bitterly contested struggle for supremacy in Italy during the Second World War Here is the gripping story of the first selective service division committed to battle in the European Theater seen from the unique vantage point of a battalion physician Using notes hastily scribbled on the backs of maps and finished out whenever he was rotated to rear areas for rest Dr Klaus Huebner captured in his diary the frustration fear boredom devotion and anger that were the daily portion of combat infantrymen The result is a remarkably sustained exposition of combat life Dr Huebner traces the 88th s activities from final staging preparations at Fort Sam Houston to North Africa and on up the Italian peninsula to the Brenner Pass in Austria just fifty five miles south of the Bavarian hamlet where he was born Combat began for the Division just north of Naples Italy During combat the medical aid station was set up in any available farmhouse barn cave or clump of trees that offered some protection for treating the wounded There the battalion surgeon and his aides did what they could under adverse circumstances gave by their presence alone moral support to the casualties and came to know well the miseries emotions and human drama of infantry soldiers in combat Dr Huebner writes I walked with the men who carried guns and slugged it out on foot I treated the wounded where they fell His story is terse and often tense a memorable view of battle and the men who tried to heal its wounds right in the field
