Tubal Uriah Butler of Trinidad and Tobago

Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana Daurius Figueira, 2007 This work explodes myths on the decolonization process in former British colonies of Trinidad and Tobago and Ghana Myths that masked the fact that the British colonial overlord with the full support of their local lackeys stage managed the process to ensure that compliant regimes were put in place as the inheritors of Independence from the British Tubal Uriah Butler was systematically destroyed as a political leader to end his threat to the political order as he was not of the required material to be an inheritor of Independence Kwame Nkrumah was fit to rule Ghana but he was subsequently removed in 1966 The social orders of Trinidad and Tobago and Ghana have been deeply impacted by British machinations on the road to Independence to this day

Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' Journal, 1908

Disabling Barriers Ravi Malhotra, Benjamin Isitt, 2017-10-15 Disabling Barriers analyzes issues relating to disability at different moments in Canadian and American history In this volume legal scholars historians and disability rights activists demonstrate that disabled people can change their social status by transforming the political and legal discourse surrounding disablement. Employing tools from the fields of law and history, this original contribution explores how disabled people have been portrayed and treated in a variety of contexts including within the labour market, the workers' compensation system, the immigration process, and the legal system, both as litigants and as lawyers. It deepens our knowledge of the role of people with disabilities within social movements in disability history. The contributors encourage us to rethink our understanding of both the systemic barriers disabled people face and the capacity of disabled people to effect positive societal change.

The Metal Worker, 1902 The Metal Worker, Plumber, and Steam Fitter, 1904 Natural History, 1929

Explaining how to implement a cause marketing program, the author joins with the organization Business for Social Responsibility and discusses never before published case studies of companies which sought to build their image and bottom line through socially responsible partnerships, programs, and events. Outline of a Phenomenology of Right

Alexandre Kojève, 2007-02-23

Alexandre Kojève was one of the twentieth century's most important political philosophers, yet among American intellectuals he is known mostly by reputation. Kojève's reading of Hegel influenced an entire generation of French intellectuals, including Raymond Aron, Georges Bataille, Jacques Lacan, and Eric Weil. His work also inspired Francis Fukuyama's famous thesis in The End of History and the Last Man, published posthumously in 1981 and available for the first time in English. Outline of a Phenomenology of Right is Kojève's most political work. This is Kojève's only sustained discussion of such fundamental questions as justice, law, and the most satisfying form of government.
