

EDGE OF DISASTER

The background of the entire image is a dramatic, high-angle view of a city at night. The city lights are visible as a grid of small, glowing points. A bright, golden-yellow light source, possibly the sun setting or rising, is positioned on the left side, creating a strong lens flare and illuminating the scene. In the center, a dark silhouette of a person in a suit is shown in a dynamic, flying pose, moving from the left towards the right. The person's right arm is extended forward, and their left arm is bent at the elbow. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, blacks, and the warm, golden-yellow of the light source.
