

The End and the Beginning

BY WISŁAWA SZYMBORSKA

TRANSLATED BY JOANNA TRZECIAK

After every war
someone has to clean up.
Things won't straighten themselves up, after all.

Someone has to push the rubble
to the side of the road,
so the corpse-filled wagons can pass.

Someone has to get mired
in scum and ashes,
sofa springs,
splintered glass,
and bloody rags.

Someone has to drag in a girder
to prop up a wall.
Someone has to glaze a window,
rehang a door.

Photogenic it's not,
and takes years.
All the cameras have left for another war.

We'll need the bridges back,
and new railway stations.
Sleeves will go ragged
from rolling them up.

Someone, broom in hand,
still recalls the way it was.
Someone else listens
and nods with unsevered head.
But already there are those nearby starting to mill about
who will find it dull.

From out of the bushes
sometimes someone still unearths rusted-out arguments
and carries them to the garbage pile.

Those who knew
what was going on here
must make way for those who know little.
And less than little.
And finally as little as nothing.

In the grass that has overgrown causes and effects,
someone must be stretched out blade of grass in his mouth gazing at the clouds.
