Unknown Deserter:

Hitler's Deserters Douglas Carl Peifer, 2025 The Wehrmacht executed thousands of its own in World War II for desertion and undermining the military spirit This study examines who these Wehrmacht deserters were why they deserted what punishment they could expect and how German military justice operated It argues that after the First World War the German military embraced the Dolchstoß legend and determined that if it ever went to war again the military would punish deserters ruthlessly This view arrived at independently accorded fully with that of Adolf Hitler The study analyses the challenges associated with hiding in the Third Reich surrendering to the enemy or crossing over into neutral Switzerland or Sweden After the Second World War Germans began a debate about how these deserters should be remembered Vergangenheitsbewältigung and whether they should be rehabilitated The study analyzes the contested meaning attached to the Wehrmacht deserter in Germany from 1945 to the twenty first century

Victimhood Nationalism Jie-Hyun Lim, 2025-04-01

Nationalism today depends on the perception of victimhood The historical memory of past suffering endows nationalist movements with political legitimacy and a sense of moral superiority Koreans recall Japanese colonial atrocities while Japan commemorates the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Israel sanctifies the Holocaust and Poland trumpets the Nazi and Soviet occupations Even Germany and Russia perpetrators of historical crimes today cast themselves as victims by pointing to national suffering In this theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich book Jie Hyun Lim offers a new way to understand nationalism and its political instrumentalization of suffering developing the concept of victimhood nationalism and exploring it in a range of global settings He examines relations among Poland Germany Israel Korea and Japan focusing on how memories of colonialism the Holocaust and Stalinist terror have converged and intertwined in transnational spaces With an emphasis on memory formation Lim scrutinizes how perpetrators in Germany and Japan transformed themselves into victims as well as how nationalists in Poland Korea and Israel portray themselves as hereditary victims in order to rebut external criticism He considers the construction of nations as victims and perpetrators tracing the interaction of history and memory Ultimately the book contends challenging victimhood nationalism is necessary to overcome the endless competition over national suffering and instead promote reconciliation mutual understanding and transnational solidarity
