Excerpt from The Unmediated Vision An Interpretation of Wordsworth Hopkins Rilke and Valery Some procedural detail should finally be noted These essays claim unity of theme and method but not of form Each essay will start from a single text and proceed by successive interpretations sometimes of the same poem sometimes of the author's work as a whole but in the number and sequence of successive analyses it is guided by the text itself as well as by the central interests of each author While the final aims of the essays are to demonstrate the common tendency of all symbolic process and the specific tendency of modern poets the immediate aim of each is to show that a unified multiple interpretation of poetry is textually justified About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Unmediated Vision Geoffrey H. Hartman, 1954      The Unmediated Vision Geoffrey H. Hartman, 1954      Visual Culture John A. Walker, Sarah Chaplin, 1997-12-15 This book is about the expanding realm of visual culture in architecture art design advertising photography film television video theatre performance computer imagery and virtual reality It is also about Visual Culture Studies a relatively new academic discipline or rather range of disciplines that scholars employ to analyse visual artefacts Unlike many other texts on the same subject it foregrounds the visual and is systematic and accessible Visual culture provides an overview of the subject that pays heed to the achievements of both traditional and new theory whilst directing the reader to a large body of literature via references and an extensive bibliography Walker and Chaplin discuss the concepts of the visual and of culture as well as the field and origins of Visual Culture Studies coping with theory models of production and consumption institutions pleasure the canon and concepts of value visual literacy and poetics modes of analysis culture and commerce and new technologies This book is designed for those studying the history and theory of fine arts design and the mass media

Romanticism and Aesthetic Life in Postcolonial Writing Philip Dickinson, 2018-02-08 This book explores Romanticism as a force that exerts an insistent but critically neglected pressure on the postcolonial imagination From the decolonizing poetics of the Caribbean to the white writing of South Africa from the aesthetics of post imperial disappointment to postcolonial theory itself it develops an account of the textual and philosophical interpenetration of postcolonial aesthetics with Romantic ideas about sense history and world What emerges is a reading of Romantic postcolonial co involvement that moves beyond well worn models of intercanonical antagonism and the historicizing biases of conventional literary history Caught somewhere between the effects of reanimation and estrangement Romanticism appears here not as a stable textual repository prior to the postcolonial but as echo spectre self interruption or vital force that can yet only emerge in the guise of the afterlife its agency mediated but never exhausted by postcolonial writing

Geoffrey Hartman Pieter Vermeulen,2010-07-26 Geoffrey Hartman Romanticism after the Holocaust offers the first comprehensive critical account of the work of the American literary critic Geoffrey Hartman The book aims to achieve two things first it charts the whole trajectory of Hartman s career now more than half a century long while playing close attention to the place of his career in broader cultural and intellectual contexts second it engages with contemporary discussions about ecology ethics trauma the media and community in order to argue that Hartman s work presents a surprisingly consistent and original position in current debates in literary and cultural studies Vermeulen identifies a persistent belief in the potency of aesthetic mediation at the heart of Hartman s project and shows how his work repeatedly reasserts that belief in the face of institutional cultural and intellectual factors that seem to deny the singular importance of literature The book allows Hartman to emerge as a major literary thinker whose relevance extends far beyond the domains of Romanticism of literary theory and of trauma studies

Post-colonial Translation Susan Bassnett,Harish Trivedi,1999 The book should be of use to those working in translation studies and comparative literature

Belief and Beyond Mukunda Rao,2019-06-25 Belief and Beyond delves into the realm of the mystic Adi Sankara Allama Prabhu Kabir Nagarjuna Gaudapada Akka Mahadevi Lalleshwari Anandamayi Ma Ramakrishna Paramahansa Sri Aurobindo Ramana Maharshi Nisargadatta Maharaj Jiddu Krishnamurti U G Krishnamurti and the Buddha bringing to life their spiritual quests and the philosophical messages they left behind for humanity The book explores the search for the non dual state of being sahaja sthithi or the natural state which is not in the realm of experience at all but a state of being where the borders and boundaries of the divided self have been transcended The author also weaves in narratives from many difficult to access texts including the Upanishads the Ashtavakra Gita and the Avadhuta Gita Written with depth and simplicity this book is for the seeker and the curious alike
