Unreal Estate:

Unreal Estate Michael Gross, 2011 A history of lucrative real estate in Los Angeles shares the lesser known contributions of a range of figures from Douglas Fairbanks and Marilyn Monroe to Howard Hughes and Ronald Reagan By the best selling author of Rogues Gallery Savage Crosswords James Savage, 2000-07-13 The first book in a new series sure to live up to its name features 50 never before published super difficult crosswords by a top constructor and edited by a renowned crossword expert Unreal Estate Stefani Shock, 2016-09-21 Beyond the day to day technique of representing buyers and sellers is the mindset of the broker I countlessly hear brokers tell me they lack confidence and self esteem How can they be a success when their confidence is hanging in the balance This book tells the story of a self made broker who tackled those same issues I rose up through the real estate trenches in NYC lost it all in the 2008 market crash only to rebound triple my income and eventually sell luxury homes in the Bahamas The shift that occurred was one that involved personal development following the guidance of others changing my sales techniques and much more All of the lessons that propelled me to the next level are included in this book Enjoy reading it as much as I did living it Unreal Estate Robert De Gast, 1993 In Unreal Estate the photographs of Robert de Gast reveal what isn't so simple about the abandoned buildings of the Chesapeake's Eastern Shore His striking color photographs of ghostly houses and weathered details illustrate the powerful hold architecture has on us even when a building no longer serves its purpose The City in American Cinema Johan Andersson, Lawrence Webb, 2019-06-27 How has American cinema engaged with the rapid transformation of cities and urban culture since the 1960s And what role have films and film industries played in shaping and mediating the postindustrial city This collection argues that cinema and cities have become increasingly intertwined in the era of neoliberalism urban branding and accelerated gentrification Examining a wide range of films from Hollywood blockbusters to indie cinema it considers the complex evolving relationship between moving image cultures and the spaces policies and politics of US cities from New York Los Angeles and Boston to Detroit Oakland and Baltimore The contributors address questions of narrative genre and style alongside the urban contexts of production exhibition and reception discussing films including The Friends of Eddie Coyle 1973 Cruising 1980 Desperately Seeking Susan 1985 King of New York 1990 Inception 2010 Frances Ha 2012 Fruitvale Station 2013 Only Lovers Left Alive 2013 and Doctor Strange 2016 The Unreal Estate Guide to Detroit Andrew Herscher, 2012-11-14 Intense attention has been paid to Detroit as a site of urban crisis This crisis however has not only yielded the massive devaluation of real estate that has so often been noted it has also yielded an explosive production of seemingly valueless urban property that has facilitated the imagination and practice of alternative urbanisms The first sustained study of Detroit's alternative urban cultures The Unreal Estate Guide to Detroit initiates a new focus on Detroit as a site not only of urban crisis but also of urban possibility The Guide documents art and curatorial practices community and guerilla gardens urban farming and forestry cultural platforms living archives evangelical missions temporary public spaces intentional communities furtive monuments outsider architecture and other work made possible by the ready availability of urban space in Detroit The Guide poses these spaces as unreal estate urban territory that has slipped through the free market economy and entered other regimes of value other contexts of meaning and other systems of use The appropriation of this territory in Detroit the Guide suggests offers new perspectives on what a city is and can be especially in a time of urban crisis

Scandals and Abstraction Leigh Claire La Berge, 2015 The Long 1980s could be summed up handily in the annals of U S cultural history with the enduring markers of Ronald Reagan s presidency Oliver Stone s film Wall Street and Dire Straits s hit single Money for Nothing Despite their vast differences each serves to underscore the confidence jingoism and optimism that powered the U S economy throughout the decade Mining a wide range of literature film and financial print journalism Scandals and Abstraction chronicles how American society s increasing concern with finance found expression in a large array of cultural materials that ultimately became synonymous with postmodernism The ever present credit cards monetary transactions and ATMs in Don De Lillo s White Noise open this study as they serve as touchstones for its protagonist s sense of white masculinity and ground the novel s narrative form Tom Wolfe

s The Bonfire of the Vanities and Oliver Stone s Wall Street animate a subsequent chapter as each is considered in light of the 1987 stock market crash and held up as a harbinger of a radical new realism that claimed a narrative monopoly on representing an emergent financial era These works give way to the pornographic excess and violence of Bret Easton Ellis s epochal American Psycho which is read alongside the popular 1980s genre of the financial autobiography With a series of trenchant readings La Berge argues that Ellis s novel can be best understood when examined alongside Ivan Boesky s Merger Mania Donald Trump s The Art of the Deal and T Boone Pickens s Boone A look at Jane Smiley s Good Faith and its plot surrounding the savings and loan crisis of the 1980s and 1990s concludes the study and considers how financial reportage became a template for much of our current writing about of finance Drawing on a diverse archive of novels films autobiographies and journalism Scandals and Abstraction provides a timely study of the economy s influence on fiction and outlines a feedback loop whereby postmodernism became more canonical realism became more postmodern and finance became a distinct cultural object
