Unruly Pleasures:

Unruly Pleasures Xavier Mendik, Graeme Harper, 2000 The first British volume dedicated to the critical consideration of cult movie making from the margins to the mainstream In a series of innovative articles by leading film critics and theorists the book deals with aspects of the medium including the cult film s definitions genres film styles and gender depictions

Defining Cult Movies Mark Jancovich, 2003-11-08 This collection concentrates on the analysis of cult movies how they are defined who defines them and the cultural politics of these definitions The definition of the cult movie relies on a sense of its distinction from the mainstream or ordinary This also raises issues about the perception of it as an oppositional form of cinema and of its strained relationships to processes of institutionalization and classification In other words cult movie fandom has often presented itself as being in opposition to the academy commercial film industries and the media more generally but has been far more dependent on these forms than it has usually been willing to admit The international roster of essayists range over the full and entertaining gamut of cult films from Dario Argento Spanish horror and Peter Jackson s New Zealand gore-fests to sexploitation kung fu and sci fi flicks

The Film Handbook Mark de Valk, Sarah Arnold, 2013-05-02 The Film Handbook examines the current state of filmmaking and how film language technique and aesthetics are being utilised for today s digital film productions It reflects on how critical analysis of film underpins practice and story and how developing an autonomous vision will best aid student creativity The Film Handbook offers practical guidance on a range of traditional and independent guerrilla film production methods from developing script ideas and the logistics of planning the shoot to cinematography sound and directing practices Film professionals share advice of their creative and practical experiences shooting both on digital and film forms The Film Handbook relates theory to the filmmaking process and includes documentary narrative and experimental forms including deliberations on reading the screen genre mise en scene montage and sound design new technologies of film production and independent distribution digital and multi film formats utilised for indie filmmakers and professional dramas sound design and music the short film form theories of transgressive and independent guerrilla filmmaking the avant garde and experimental as a means of creative expression preparing to work in the film industry development of specialisms as director producer cinematographer editor and the presentation of creative work
