Unsettling Europe:

The Unsettling of Europe Peter Gatrell, 2019-08-27 An acclaimed historian examines postwar migration's fundamental role in shaping modern Europe. Migration is perhaps the most pressing issue of our time and it has completely decentered European politics in recent years. But as we consider the current refugee crisis, acclaimed historian Peter Gatrell reminds us that the history of Europe has always been one of people on the move. The end of World War II left Europe in a state of confusion with many Europeans virtually stateless. Later, as former colonial states gained national independence, colonists and their supporters migrated to often unwelcoming metropolises. The collapse of communism in 1989 marked another fundamental turning point. Gatrell places migration at the center of post-war European history and the aspirations of migrants themselves at the center of the story of migration. This is an urgent history that will reshape our understanding of modern Europe.

The Unsettling of Europe Peter Gatrell, 2019-08-29 WINNER OF THE LAURA SHANNON PRIZE 2021 SHORTLISTED FOR THE LIONEL GELBER PRIZE 2020 A TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT BOOK OF THE YEAR 2019 Migrants have stood at the heart of modern Europe's experience, whether trying to escape danger to find a better life or as a result of deliberate policy, whether moving from the countryside to the city or between countries or from outside the continent altogether. Peter Gatrell's powerful new book is the first to bring these stories together into one place. He creates a compelling narrative bracketed by two nightmarish periods: the great convulsions following the fall of the Third Reich and the mass attempts in the 2010s by migrants to cross the Mediterranean into Europe. The Unsettling of Europe is a new history of the continent charting the ever-changing arguments about the desirability or otherwise of migrants and their central role in Europe's post-1945 prosperity. Gatrell is as fascinating on the giant movements of millions, such as the epic waves of German migration, to that of much smaller groups, such as the Karelians, Armenians, Moluccans, or Ugandan Asians. Above all, he has written a book that makes the reader deeply aware of the many extraordinary journeys taken by countless individuals in pursuit of work, safety, and dignity all the time. This is a landmark book on a subject that decade by decade will always haunt Europe. Peter Gatrell has produced a tour de force. This important and timely work on one of the most challenging issues in modern Europe deserves to be widely read.

Ian Kershaw Unsettling Europe Jane Kramer, 1990 Portrays the lives of four families who represent the millions of people uprooted by wars, family dissolution, or fallen colonial empires that are now dramatically changing European society.

Africa in Europe Eve Rosenhaft, Robbie John Macvicar Aitken, 2013-01-01 Africa in Europe goes beyond the still dominant American and transatlantic focus of diaspora studies, examining the experiences of black and white Africans, Afro-Caribbeans, and African Americans in Western Europe, Britain, and the former Soviet Union from the end of the nineteenth century to the beginning of the twenty-first. Exploring a huge range of border-crossing experiences across and within Africa and Europe, it examines topics such as ethnic and cultural boundaries, working across the color line, and the limits of solidarity. With contributions from scholars in social history, art history, anthropology, cultural studies and literary studies as well from a novelist and a filmmaker it offers a broad look at the intersection of Africa and Europe at all levels from family and community to culture and politics Ethnic Europe Roland Hsu, 2010-02-05 Ethnic Europe examines the increasingly complex ethnic challenges facing the expanding European Union Essays from eleven experts tackle such issues as labor migration strains on welfare economies the durability of local traditions the effects of globalized cultures and the role of Islamic diasporas separatist movements and threats of terrorism With Europe now a destination for global immigration European countries are increasingly alert to the difficult struggle to balance minority rights with social cohesion In pondering these dilemmas the contributors to this volume take us from theory history and broad views of diasporas to the particularities of neighborhoods borderlands and popular literature and film that have been shaped by the mixing of ethnic cultures

Diplomacy and the Future of World Order Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, Pamela Aall, 2021 Diplomacy in pursuit of peace and security faces severe challenges not seen in decades Obstacles to diplomacy are coming from the re emergence of strong states discord in the UN Security Council destabilizing transnational non state actors closing space for civil society within states and the weakening of the international liberal order Diplomacy and the Future of World Order develops three visions of the future in which states and other key actors in the international system respond by deciding to go it alone return to a liberal order or collaborate on a case by case basis to address common threats and problems The central focus of this book is peace and conflict diplomacy defined as the effort to manage others conflicts cope with great power competition or deal with threats to the state system itself The distinguished international group of experts writing in this volume analyze the different scenarios impact on peace and conflict diplomacy from the perspective of key actors and regions It also explores the prospects for discord or collaboration around four major security issues peacekeeping nuclear nonproliferation cyber competition and terrorism Chester A Crocker Fen Osler Hampson and Pamela Aall conclude by identifying emerging types of diplomacy that can provide the foundation for global peacemaking and conflict management in an uncertain future

Imperialism in the Modern World William Bowman, Frank Chiteji, J. Megan Greene, 2016-11-03 Imperialism in the Modern World combines narrative primary and secondary sources and visual documents to examine global relations in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The three co editors Professors Bowman Chiteji and Greene have taught for many years global history classes in a variety of institutions They wrote Imperialism in the Modern World to solve the problem of allowing teachers to combine primary and secondary texts easily and systematically to follow major themes in global history some readers use primary materials exclusively Some focus on secondary arguments This book is more focused than other readers on the markets for those teachers who are offering more specialized world history courses one important trend in global history is away from simply trying to cover everything to teaching real connections in more chronologically and thematically focused courses The reader also provides a genuine diversity of global perspectives and invites students to study seriously world history from a critical framework Too many readers offer a smorgasbord approach to world history that leaves students dazed and confused This reader avoids that approach and will therefore solve many problems that teachers have in constructing and teaching world history courses at the introductory or upper division levels The reader will allow show students how to read historical documents through a hands on demonstration in the introduction The book also incorporates images as visual documents Finally the book conceives of global history in the widest possible terms it contains pieces on political diplomatic economic and military history to be sure but it also has selections on technology medicine women the environment social changes and cultural patterns Other readers can not match this text s breadth because they are chronologically and thematically so extended

The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson, William Theophilus Davison, 1868 The Signalman's Journal, 1921 The American Artisan, 1921 Slippery Slope Giles Merritt, 2016-06-01 Shortlisted for 2016 European Book Prize Giles Merritt describes himself as a sceptical europhile For many years among the foremost commentators on the politics and economics shaping Europe he was named by the Financial Times as one of 30 Eurostars who are the most influential voices in Brussels Slippery Slope is far from the usual run of uncritical EU related studies Its aim is to set alarm bells ringing across Europe with its revealing insights into our increasingly troubled future Giles Merritt argues that the steepness and suddenness of Europe s decline in the Asian century will depend on the actions we Europeans undertake And there are two key lessons that we need to face from the beginning Firstly the good times aren t coming back without a massive effort on our part And secondly in a fast developing world of 9 10 billion people no single European country can survive and prosper on its own Merritt sets out to sort fact from fiction in his analysis of Europe s weaknesses and the policies needed to address them Placing the outlook for Europe in its global context he assesses Europe s decline in relative as well as absolute terms and puts forward an ambitious but realistic to do list for Europe s policymakers if our comparatively privileged life styles are not to be seriously threatened in the coming years In the wake of Brexit this is a hard hitting warning that unless Europeans shake themselves awake their future will be increasingly gloomy Anyone who believes that the economic crisis that began in 2008 is just a blip will find this book a salutary lesson in the reality of Europe s position

American Artisan, Tinner and House Furnisher Daniel Stern, 1921 American Artisan, 1921 Rosenbaum Review, 1921 The American Artisan and Hardware Record, 1921 United States Bulletin Service, 1921 The Herald and Genealogist, 1874 Subject Catalog, 1980 Library of Congress, 1980 Memoir of the Late John Gough Nichols. [With Plates Including Portraits.] Robert Cradock NICHOLS, 1874 The American Marine Engineer, 1921
