Uppark And Its People:

Uppark and Its People Lady Margaret Ishbel Frances Glyn Meade-Fetherstonhaugh, Oliver Warner, 1964      Uppark and Its People Lady Margaret Meade-Fetherstonhaugh, 1995      Uppark and Its People Lady Margaret Ishbel Frances Glyn Meade-Fetherstonhaugh, Margaret Meade Fetherstonhaugh, Oliver Warner, National Trust (Great Britain), 2006-02 This is a history of the successive generations of people who lived at Uppark drawing on the letters and documents preserved in the house      The Housekeeper's Tale Tessa Boase, 2014-05-19 Working as a housekeeper was one of the most prestigious jobs a nineteenth and early twentieth century woman could want and also one of the toughest A far cry from the Downton Abbey fiction the real life Mrs Hughes was up against capricious mistresses low pay no job security and gruelling physical labour Until now her story has never been told The Housekeeper's Tale reveals the personal sacrifices bitter disputes and driving ambition that shaped these women's careers Delving into secret diaries unpublished letters and the neglected service archives of our stately homes Tessa Boase tells the extraordinary stories of five working women who ran some of Britain's most prominent households There is Dorothy Doar Regency housekeeper for the obscenely wealthy 1st Duke and Duchess of Sutherland at Trentham Hall Staffordshire There is Sarah Wells a deaf and elderly Victorian in charge of Uppark West Sussex Ellen Penketh is Edwardian cook housekeeper at the sociable but impecunious Erddig Hall in the Welsh borders Hannah Mackenzie runs Wrest Park in Bedfordshire Britain's first country house war hospital bankrolled by playwright J M Barrie And there is Grace Higgins cook housekeeper to the Bloomsbury set at Charleston farmhouse in East Sussex for half a century an era defined by the Second World War Revelatory gripping and unexpectedly poignant The Housekeeper's Tale champions the invisible women who ran the English country house Normal0falsefalsefalseEN GBX NONEX NONE      Faded and Threadbare Historic Textiles and their Role in Houses Open to the Public Margaret Ponsonby, 2016-04-15 Many historic houses that open to the public in England and Wales particularly those owned by the National Trust preserve their contents rather than restore them to a particular period The former owners of these houses often retained objects from various periods and this layering of history produces interiors that look aged and patinated Although the reason for this preservation and lack of fashionable renewable can be attributed to declining economic fortunes in the twentieth century there are many examples of families practising this method of homemaking over a much longer period Taking National Trust properties as its central focus this book examines three interlocking themes to examine the role of historic textiles Firstly it looks at houses with preserved contents together with the reasons for individual families choosing this lifestyle secondly the role of the National Trust as both guardian and interpreter of these houses and their collections and finally and most importantly the influence of textiles to contribute to the appearance of interiors and their physical attributes that carry historical resonances of the past The importance of preserved textiles in establishing the visual character of historic houses is a neglected area and therefore the prominence given to textiles in this project constitutes an original contribution to the study of these houses

Drawing upon a range of primary sources including literature produced by the National Trust for their sites and documentary sources for the families and their houses such as diaries letters and household accounts the study takes a broad approach that will be of interest to all those with an interest in material culture heritage collecting studies and cultural history A Dictionary of British and Irish Travellers in Italy, 1701-1800 John Ingamells,1997-01-01 This dictionary identifies over 6000 British and Irish travellers who toured in Italy in the 18th century Compiled from the archive accumulated by Sir Brinsley Ford it provides brief formal biographies of these travellers their Italian itineraries and selective accounts of their experiences
