Uprooting Integration In The Writings:

Uprooting and Integration in the Writings of Simone Weil Betty McLane-Iles, 1987 This interdisciplinary study reviews the entirety of Simone Weil's writings on philosophy history science religion language folklore and literature in order to give a total perspective of Weil's extensive contributions to twentieth century thought In each of these fields the forces of uprooting and integration move towards a resolution of the problem of estrangement The extent of Weil's study of the problem of alienation has long been underestimated and so has the value of her contributions Among these were her role in the formulation of modern existentialist philosophies her involvement with the crisis of determinism and her refusal of discontinuous forms of probability that had led to quantum mechanics her denunciation of colonial policies and the bureaucratization of power and labor and her search for original meaning in language mythology and poetic expression This study is an exploration of each of these areas in Weil's writings and the contribution of each to the dialectical power of the forces of uprooting and integration

Writing as Resistance Rachel Feldhay Brenner, 1997 Having volunteered as a social worker in Westerbork Etty Hillesum searched her soul for love in the reality of terror In each case autobiographical writing becomes an act of defiance that asserts humanity in a dehumanized dehumanizing world Christianity and Literature

, 1986 Spiritual Guides for Today Annice Callahan, 1992 Biographical and critical interpretations of six contemporary women and men who can be spiritual guides for us as we struggle to live a faith that challenges us to discover God in our own hearts in others and in the world With notes and bibliographies for each chapter Simone Weil Christopher

Frost, 1998-05-21 This book provides a unique presentation of Simone Weil's life work and her contributions to feminist thought Long before postmodern or deconstructionist ideas became current Weil was concerned with recognizing the absence of consistency and the continual presence of reversals and contradictions in life The struggle to clarify her reading of reality and her perceptions of meaning was an ongoing one and she challenged contemporary views on complex issues such as human nature good and evil divinity and truth In this introduction to Simone Weil's ideas and the political and intellectual circumstances of her work the authors make Weil's complex and at times elusive ideas accessible to readers They offer their own interpretation of her work and delineate how Weil's ideas evolved while providing compelling excerpts from Weil's writings to let her speak for herself Her work offers a voice for those segments of society that are generally underrepresented misrepresented or totally silent in conventional historical and philosophical writings Back cover

Writing from the Hearth Mildred Mortimer, 2007-11-01 If space is important in the realm of imagination and a key theme in feminist theory cross cultural studies of social maps reveal that men and women's spatial experiences differ women rarely control physical or social space directly Positing the thesis that women's writing of Francophone Africa and the Caribbean offers important perspectives on the relationship of gender to space Writing from the Hearth proposes close readings of Francophone women writers of Africa Aoua KZita Mariama B% Ken Bugul Calixthe Beyala and Aminata Sow Fall and the Caribbean Marie Chauvet Simon Schwarz Bart Maryse Condé and Edwidge Danticat As critical readings of postcolonial African and Caribbean literature show that tropes of confinement appear frequently in female authored texts where home is often depicted as a place of alienation this critical study examines ambiguities associated with domestic space as enclosure as it explores the relationship between the female protagonist and the inner and outer spaces of her world domestic imaginative and public space Writing from the Hearth probes the hypothesis that the female protagonist can move toward empowerment by entering public space from which she has been excluded by indigenous patriarchs and European colonizers and by establishing a new relationship to domestic space or securing a liberating alternative space within it Flexible and multipurpose alternative space is a place of possibilities that can function as a refuge for meditation recollection or fantasy an antechamber for action and a site of resistance and performance Here by telling the tale writing the creative work a woman can affirm her sense of self

Otherness and the Media Hamid Naficy, Teshome H. Gabriel, 2016-10-04 This anthology on otherness and the media first published in 1993 was prompted by the proliferation of writings centring on issues of difference diversity multiculturalism representation and postcolonial discourses Such issues and discourses question existing canons of criticism theory and cultural practice but also because they suggest a new sense of direction in theorisation of difference and representation

A History of Women Philosophers M.E. Waite, 1995 Like their predecessors and like their male counterparts most women philosophers of the 20th century have significant expertise in several specialities Moreover their work represents the gamut of 20th century philosophy's interests in moral pragmatism logical positivism philosophy of mathematics of psychology and of mind Their writings include feminist philosophy classical moral theory reevaluated in light of Kant Mill and the 19th century feminist and abolitionist movements and issues in logic and perception Included in the fourth volume of the series are discussions of L Susan Stebbing Edith Stein Hedwig Conrad Martius Simone de Beauvoir Simone Weil Mary Whiton Calkins Gerda Walther and others While pre 20th century women philosophers were usually self educated those of the 20th century had greater access to academic preparation in philosophy Yet for all the advances made by women philosophers over two and a half millennia the philosophers discussed in this volume were sometimes excluded from full participation in academic life and sometimes denied full professional academic status
