the same time     The Apple Trees Hugh Walpole,2020-04-14 There is a fearful passage in Virginia Woolf s beautiful and mysterious book The Waves which when I first read it gave me an acute shock of unanticipated reminiscence This is it Since I am supposed said Neville to be too delicate to go with them since I get so easily tired and then am sick I will use this hour of solitude this reprieve from conversation to coast round the purlieus of the house and recover if I can by standing on the same stair half way up the landing what I felt when I heard about the dead man through the swing door last night when cook was shoving in and out the dampers He was found with his throat cut The apple tree leaves became fixed in the sky the moon glared I was unable to lift my foot up the stair He was found in the gutter His jowl was white as a dead codfish I shall call this stricture this rigidity death among the apple trees for ever There were the floating pale grey clouds and the immitigable tree the implacable tree with its greaved silver bark The ripple of my life was unavailing I was unable to pass by There was an obstacle I cannot surmount this unintelligible obstacle I said And the others passed on But we are doomed all of us by the immitigable apple tree     Apple Tree!
